Santa May Miss Some Families Here

He Will Need Help To Fill Stockings Of City's Needy

With all of Marion's needy be remembered on Christmas Day?

This, is the question Give-a-Christmas clearinghouse workers ponder as a stack of 190 cases looms in front of them with the holiday just three days away.

UNLESS Marionites care enough to share their blessings with these unfortunates, Christmas morning will find empty stockings, empty refrigerators and empty hearts in many a Marion home.

Will the small child who longs for just one toy be denied this treasured dream? Will the mother who wants a wholesome dinner to place before her youngsters be deprived of this privilege?

And what of the red hands and feet of both young and old, exposed to the cold because pennies will not buy shoes, boots and gloves?

Of the 190 cases left on file, 112 are families in which food and clothing are the crying need. Seventy-eight others are individuals, most of them elderly shut-ins, alone in the world with nothing but memories to brighten their holiday.

JUST A VISIT and a gift to these elderly folk is all the clearinghouse asks, — a remembrance to show them someone cares enough to share the true holiday spirit of giving, Mrs. Howard Williams, chairman of the Junior Service Guild sponsored clearinghouse, said today.

Not only the number of remaining needy cases poses a problem, but the amount of money donated, Mrs. Williams noted. Last year more than $700 was contributed to buy food for hungry mouths. This year only $400 has been given.

Where will the balance come from to provide even a simple meal? It must come from generous donations.

IN HOMES WHERE not only poverty, but the loss of a loved one is gripping hearts, Christmas will be a particularly bleak occasion.

Mr. A. and his nine children face the first Christmas without

(Turn to CHRISTMAS, Page 15)

How To Make a Gift

To give a Christmas, telephone 3-2313 or visit clearinghouse headquarters at the Salvation Army Citadel, corner of Windsor and W. Church streets, for names of indigent persons or families. Cash contributions particularly are needed. Make checks payable to Give-a-Christmas and send to clearinghouse headquarters.

WAITING FOR A CONTRIBUTION. Give-a-Christmas clearinghouse workers sit dejectedly in their headquarters at the Salvation Army Citadel, waiting for a telephone call from some Marionite who will volunteer to share his bounty with some of the city's less fortunate citizens. The clearinghouse still has 190 cases on its Christmas list, and will need many offers of assistance if all the city's needy are to be supplied with gifts. Pictured (left to right) are: Mrs. Howard Williams, chairman of the Junior Service Guild project; Mrs. John Farley, clearinghouse secretary; and Mrs. Thomas Wagner, Guild volunteer worker. With Christmas only three days away, workers are wondering if the needs of Marion's indigent families and individuals will be met in time for the holiday. To help make the answer "yes," telephone 3-2313 between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. The clearinghouse will close Wednesday noon.

France Names DeGaulle As President; Will Begin Seven-Year Term Jan. 8

Only Token Opposition Is Encountered

Premier Wins Third Voting Victory; Will Head Fifth Republic

PARIS (AP)—Premier Charles de Gaulle's bandwagon rolled on in France Sunday with his third personal voting victory. As expected, members of the Electoral College overwhelmingly elected him the first president of the Fifth Republic.

The wartime hero, 68, who stepped aside as premier in 1946 rather than play second fiddle to the National Assembly, now can assume the presidency for a seven-year term with greatly increased powers. He will take over the office from Rene Coty, 76, Jan. 8.

Prediction Correct

The "rule by Assembly" of the Fourth Republic collapsed just as de Gaulle had predicted. Under special powers granted him to reform the French state after the revolt last May, de Gaulle wrote a new constitution with a strong executive.

His first victory came when the new constitution was approved by an 80 per cent vote in a September election.

In November, a new National Assembly was elected with a preponderance of de Gaulle followers.

In Sunday's presidential election de Gaulle got 78.5 per cent of the valid ballots of the grand electors, an Electoral College representing the French mainland and overseas territories.

DeGaulle Doesn't Take Part

De Gaulle did not vote or take part in the election. As premier he did not belong to any category of the grand electors, made up of mayors, municipal and county councillors, Parliament members and a few plain citizens.

Of 79,468 valid ballots, complete returns gave de Gaulle 62,392.

The two token opposition candidates ran far behind. Communist Georges Marrange, 70, mayor of the Paris suburb of Ivry, received 10,354 votes. Albert Chatelet, 75, a University of Paris dean and candidate of the non-Communist opposition to de Gaulle, got 6,722.

Until he takes over the presidency, de Gaulle remains premier with his broad special powers to rule by decree. These special powers automatically expire when he becomes president.

When de Gaulle moves into the Elysee Palace as president, he will have power to:

Appoint a premier without the necessity of his choice being approved by Parliament—ministers will be named by the president according to the proposals of the premier.

Assume full power in a grave emergency where the independence or security of the state is endangered, or normal institutions can no longer function.

New Contacts With Radio On Atlas Due

Weekend Tests Prove Successful; Words of Ike Used Most of Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — Earthmen were ready today for more two-way radio contacts with the mighty Atlas missile-satellite, now in its fourth day of hurtling about the globe.

Radio contacts are attempted when the nearly 4½-ton satellite reaches a favorable position in relation to four sending and receiving stations in the United States.

Over the weekend a number of voice and radio-teletypewriter messages were transmitted to the fast-traveling satellite, and relayed back to posts in California, Georgia, Texas and Arizona.

Most Were Ike's Words

Most of the words that flashed back and forth were those of President Eisenhower wishing, in this Christmas season, "peace on earth and good will toward men everywhere." This was the message sent up with the Atlas in recorded form, then erased by remote control and sent again.

Barreling along at 17,000 miles an hour, the 85-foot Atlas is orbiting the earth in an egg-shaped flight pattern. After it was launched from Cape Canaveral, Fla., Thursday night, scientists said the satellite had a life expectancy of about 20 days.

In its first few days aloft, American scientists have conducted a number of communications tests they said could lead to such futuristic developments as space-relayed television and globe-spinning military communications.

3-Phase Test

The weekend tests involved (1) relaying Eisenhower's voice-recorded "peace on earth" message, (2) relaying — in coded form — that message and another by radio teletypewriter, and (3) leaving the messages on the satellite's tape recorder for a while before triggering their transmission to ground stations.

Sunday afternoon, a station at Ft. Stewart, Ga., sent out seven teletypewriter messages simultaneously to the Atlas. All seven messages carried Eisenhower's words. Then, on radio command, all seven were returned from the satellite simultaneously.

The seven-message test also was run, with variations, by ground stations at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex., and near Los Angeles.

Weds Swedish Businessman

Actress Ingrid Bergman Honeymooning in Paris

PARIS (AP) — Ingrid Bergman called the cops today so she could honeymoon in peace with her new husband, wealthy Swedish businessman Lars Schmidt.

The 41-year-old Swedish actress and her third spouse, who also is 41, eluded press and public Sunday and were married in a quiet civil ceremony in London.

By the time the press tumbled to the marriage, the couple had flown to Paris and taken refuge in a little walled farm Schmidt owns 15 miles from Paris.

Farm Besieged

By dawn, the farm was besieged by newsmen and photographers, who began mounting the wall. Miss Bergman called the gendarmes from the nearby village and they ordered the press off the wall.

In marrying again, Miss Bergman defied the Rome Court of Appeal which is considering a state prosecutor's contest of a lower Rome court's decree annulling her marriage to Italian film director Roberto Rossellini.

She had announced months ago that she would wed Schmidt when she was free from Rossellini. At a hearing last Friday in Rome her attorney was warned that remarriage before the appeal court's decision "would be highly detrimental to her case." Another hearing is scheduled Feb. 3.

The actress' London attorney, Ambrose Appelbe, said the appeal against the annulment "is just a put-up job" and that her new marriage is legal in Sweden, Britain and France.

Threatens Charges

Under Italian law, the annullment is not legally effective until the appeal is decided. The state prosecutor said previously he would file bigamy charges if either Miss Bergman or Rossellini married before the case was settled.

Schmidt is the son of a retired Swedish army officer. He has been married, but was divorced six or seven years ago. He has been Miss Bergman's constant companion since she and Rossellini separated.

Miss Bergman's first husband was Dr. Peter Lindstrom, whom she married before her Hollywood success and by whom she had a daughter, Jenny Ann, now 20.

Goldfine Gets Three-Month Jail Sentence

Mildred Paperman To Serve Ten Days After Contempt Conviction

BOSTON (AP) — Federal Judge Charles E. Wyzanski Jr. sentenced New England industrialist Bernard Goldfine to three months in jail today for contempt of court in failing to turn over company records in a tax probe.

Miss Mildred Paperman, his secretary for many years, was given 10 days in jail. Sentences will start Jan. 7. Both were released in personal recognizance of $1,000.

Their convictions were handed down Friday by Judge Wyzanski.

Goldfine Shows Dismay

Judge Wyzanski told Goldfine: "I have no wish that you spend this season in jail and I wish to give you adequate opportunity to present this case to the court of appeals."

A look of dismay crossed the 67-year-old Goldfine's face. Miss Paperman sagged a bit as the judge passed sentence.

Judge Wyzanski said he based his decision on the fact that Goldfine and Miss Paperman were "intimate with tribunal proceedings and were well aware of the penalties for flouting the authority of his court."

Goldfine, gift-giving friend of former presidential aide Sherman Adams, and Miss Paperman were convicted of criminal contempt. Civil contempt charges were dismissed.

Prison Yet To Be Chosen

U.S. Atty. Anthony Julian had recommended that Goldfine be given six months prison sentence and fined $10,000. He recommended a two-month term for Miss Paperman.

The sentences are to be served at a prison to be selected by the U.S. attorney general.

In another court action, Goldfine and other officers of the East Boston Co., a realty concern, were to answer to civil contempt charges brought by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The SEC charged that the company failed to file reports with the commission and the Boston Stock Exchange.

Huge Spending Program

Soviets Announce Boost in Economy

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government today announced a vast new program of spending on scientific research, social welfare and expansion of the Soviet economy.

Finance Minister Arseny Zverev outlined the program to a joint session of the Supreme Soviet, the parliament of the Soviet Union, which opened its annual meeting to approve the government budget for the coming year.

The biggest jump came in the projected government investments to expand the Soviet production facilities — a huge increase of 71,400,000,000 rubles — or nearly 18 billion dollars — over the amount spent in 1958.

Zverev said the expansion fund would total 484,300,000,000 — $121,075,000,000 — including direct government investments of 308,700,000,000 rubles, and 175,600,000,000 rubles of profits from government enterprises to be ploughed back.

Heavy Industry Pushed

Investments will be particularly increased, he continued, in the iron and steel, chemical, oil and gas industries, and in engineering. He also announced an alocation of 36,300,000,000 rubles — $7,575,000,000 — for the expansion of agriculture.

Zverev said 27,300,000,000 rubles — $6,825,000,000 — would be appropriated for scientific research. He compared this to a previous appropriation of 23,900,000,000.

He said 232 billion rubles, or 58 billion dollars, would be spent in 1959 on education, health, social insurance and maternity benefits for prolific mothers, an increase of nearly 20 billion rubles over 1958. This will include more than 94 billion rubles for education, 44 billion for the health program, over 88 billion for social insurance and 5½ billion for mothers.

8 Per Cent Boost Over '58

"As compared with 1958, the national income will increase by 8 per cent and will be 140 per cent greater than in 1950," Zverev said.

The finance minister called for increased labor productivity and lower production costs in industry, transport services and agriculture. The labor force is to increase by 1,300,000 workers, but the workers obviously are expected to produce still more than in past years in the campaign to overtake the American economy.

Zverev said the Soviet government expects its budget revenues to rise to 722,900,000,000 rubles, an increase of 9.3 per cent over 1958, and expenditures to go up 10.8 per cent to 707,200,000,000 rubles.

By contrast with the big rise in expenditures for education and social benefits, a slight decrease was promised in the defense appropriation. This was put at 96,100,000,000 — $24,025,000,000 — as compared with a 1958 defense appropriation of 96,30,000,000 rubles.

The finance minister said the defense budget "reflects the peace policy of the Soviet Union, a policy of preserving peace in the whole world."

Preston Given Noble's Job as Highway Boss

Columbus Resident Is Named by DiSalle To Head Department

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Everett Smith Preston, 47, of Columbus was named state highway director today by Gov.-Elect. Michael V. DiSalle.

Preston, a native of Portsmouth, was a highway department employe from 1935 until early 1957 when he left to form his own company here.

Developed Aerial Process

The company is Photronix, an engineering firm specializing in highway location design.

Stories on other DiSalle appointments on Pages 15 and 24.

Preston developed an aerial photography process credited with cutting the time for highway planning and design by 60 per cent.

He will succeed Charles M. Noble, Republican Gov. C. William O'Neill's $30,000-a-year highway director on Jan. 12. DiSalle did not announce Preston's pay but the Democratic governor-elect has indicated it would be lower than Noble's.

Preston went to work for the highway department in Division 9 at Chillicothe, in March, 1935, as a project engineer. In 1945, he became division planning engineer.

Moves to Columbus in 1949

He moved to Columbus to become assistant chief engineer for location and design in highway department headquarters from March, 1949, to September, 1955, at that time he became chief engineer for location and design and had general supervision of all activities related to that phase of highway work.

Preston is a registered professional and civil engineer. He is married.

'Titan' Rocket Is Readied for Fresh Attempt

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The first attempt to fire a Titan, the nation's newest war rocket, has failed, but today the launching crew prepared for another shoot in the near future.

Titan, first of the nation's so-called second generation missiles, spurted a flash of flame when the first stage engine ignited Saturday. Seconds later it sputtered out when a malfunction occurred. The trouble apparently was caused by a fuel line hose that burst as the engine roared into action.

This was the first attempt to launch the Titan, a 90-foot two-stage intercontinental range ballistic missile which is being developed for combat use.

The Titan is described as more sophisticated than the present Atlas ICBM which was hurled into an orbit around the world last Thursday. That means it is somewhat lighter and more flexible than Atlas, but still capable of longer range.

The Titan reportedly could easily match the 8,000-mile distance over which the Russians claim to have fired an ICBM.

Fair and Warmer Weather Forecast

Winter's advent became official today, but the weatherman's forecast indicated that conditions in the immediate future would be considerably less "winterish" than they were in the weeks just past.

A high of 27 favored Marion County both Saturday and Sunday, with respective overnight lows of 12 and 14 recorded.

The outlook this morning was for fair and warmer circumstances both tonight and Tuesday.

Skies were relatively clear at dawn today and a bright sun rose to begin a day of thawing. The temperature stood at 26 at noon, with a high of 36 anticipated before nightfall.

A low of only 24 is predicted for tonight, with a lofty 40 on tap for Tuesday.

Gain Strength, Nationalists Claim

Resistance Movements Continue in Red China

TAIPEI (AP) — The resistance movements in Tibet and neighboring Chinese provinces are gaining strength, nationalist intelligence sources claimed today.

In some areas, they asserted, rebels for a time occupied key positions and forced Communist troops to take temporary refuge in mountains.

The sources said the situation became so serious that Marshal Peng Teh-huai, Red China's defense minister, went to Tsinghai, on Tibet's northeast border, in October to direct operations against the rebels.

Coincided With Cease-Fire

They claimed that Peng's trip coincided with the cease-fire he proclaimed in the Quemoy area Oct. 6. This lasted 15 out of 21 scheduled days.

Refugees who reached India last month were quoted as saying that Nationalist flags were being flown openly in the border area between the provinces of Sikang and Tsinghai.

Reports from Nationalist underground agents were said to have included these details:

A big anti-Communist demonstration was staged in Lhasa, capital of Tibet, in late April.

Rebels Clash With Troops

A force of more than 6,000 rebels clashed with Communist troops northwest of Lhasa Aug. 30 and killed about 500.

The rebels also had two engagements with Communist troops of battalion strength, one in September, the other in October.

Attacks by rebels have forced the Reds to resort to strong armed escorts on the Tibet-India road.

In April rebels attacked seven villages in Sikang. They ambushed and killed the chief Communist party official of Chiangta County in June.

Rebels occupied Yushu County in southern Sikang June 8 and did not withdraw until heavy Red forces were thrown against them.

Strikes Ground 2 Major Lines

Rash of Labor Trouble Hits Holiday Air Travel

By The Associated Press

A thick fog of labor troubles hung over holiday air travel today.

Strikes kept the giant fleets of American Airlines and Eastern Air Lines on the ground during the peak season of air travel.

Tens of thousands of passengers continued to scramble for alternate accommodations as Christmas approached.

Railroads and buses, already loaded with holiday travelers, reported a land office business. Long waiting lists formed at other airlines.

Mail Is Diverted

Piles of Christmas mail were diverted to other carriers.

A pilots' walkout at midnight Friday grounded American. Eastern had been idled since Nov. 24 by a strike of mechanics and flight engineers.

A breakthrough in deadlocked contract negotiations does not appear likely soon.

An American spokesman said no arrangements have been made for a resumption of talks between the company and the striking Air Lines Pilots Assn. A union spokesman and a federal mediator have predicted the strike will be a long one.

American notified 20,000 nonstriking employes Sunday night they will be placed on emergency leave, without pay, after Jan. 4 if the strike goes beyond that date.

Withholding Results

Eastern's mechanics voted Friday night in Miami, Fla., on proposals offered by the company. They are withholding the results pending a company settlement with the engineers.

The pilots' strike at American drew criticism from two California officials.

Rep. H. Allen Smith (R-Calif) and Los Angeles Mayor Norris Poulson both wired ALPA president Clarence Sayen strongly protesting the calling of the strike

Shovel-Union Meeting Postponed to Tuesday

A negotiating meeting between the Marion Power Shovel Co. and striking Local 1949, United Steel Workers, scheduled for today in U.S. Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service headquarters in Washington, D.C., has been postponed until tomorrow, company officials said.

The meeting was called by federal mediators seeking to end the 14-week-old strike.

New Observatory Will Scan Universe

BIG PINE, Calif. (AP)—They've dedicated a 1½-million-dollar radio observatory near here that some day may track and guide space ships as they speed far out into the universe.

It's believed also that once both of the observatory's two 90-foot dish antennas are in operation scientists will be able to peer 30 billion light years back into time and space.

Built by the California Institute of Technology, with Navy help on financing, the observatory is located in the Owens Valley, 250 miles north of Los Angeles.

Rear Adm. Rawson Bennett II, chief of naval research, told a dedication audience Friday: "This observatory may be able to reach far enough back into time to see our own world as it was billions of years ago — perhaps while it was still being formed."

THE ADMIRAL was referring to the Einstein concept that time and space are like a doughnut — that if you go far enough and fast enough you come back where you started. And, since you are sneaking up from behind, you get there prior to the time of your departure.

A light year represents the distance that a beam of light—racing along at 186,000 miles per second—travels in a year.

The farthest man has been able to see out into the universe thus far is two billion light-years. This is the range of the 200-inch Hale telescope on Mount Palomar in San Diego County.

Actually, there isn't much point in building a bigger visual telescope because of the distortion of light waves by the earth's atmosphere. But the atmosphere has no effect on radio telescopes.

Even now, with only one of this observatory's antennas in operation, radio signals have been picked up from stars a billion light years away.

WHEN THE SECOND 90-foot mesh dish is ready next spring, observatory Director John G. Bolton expects to begin receiving radio impulses from stars up to 30 billion light years away.

The observatory will be able not only to receive radio impulses over tremendous distances, but send them as well. That's where the tracking and guiding of space ships comes in. It's also where the Navy's interest is keen.

"More than $1,300,000 of the construction cost was provided by the Office of Naval Research," Adm. Bennett said.

"The research we do here is expected to improve navigation of ships and planes. In bad weather, the stars man has steered by for centuries are not visible. Before long, fliers and mariners will be guided not by the light from the stars but by the radio impulses from them."

Courthouse Improved

Baldauf Construction Co. workmen today began installing storm doors at the south and west entrances to the Courthouse. The work was ordered by the county commissioners early last fall. The commissioners said the doors will be removed and stored during the summer.

Area Woman Injured

GALION — While walking on the sidewalk on S. Columbus St., Sunday afternoon Mrs. Goldie Nungessor, 69, of near Galion, slipped on the ice, fell, and fractured her right hip. She was admitted to Galion Community Hospital shortly after 1 o'clock. Mrs. Nungessor was on her way to join other members of the Golden Age club chorus for the trip to the Crawford County Home.

Christmas Parties Are Held Here by Telephone Firm

Two Christmas events for employes of the General Telephone Co. of Ohio and their families were held Saturday.

The annual holiday dance for employes and their wives, husbands or guests was held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the UAW-CIO union hall which was decorated with Christmas motifs for the occasion.

"Kris Kringle's Kapers" was the dance theme and music was provided by Allan Rodgers and his Combo of Mansfield. Approximately 400 persons were in attendance.

Special prizes during the evening were awarded to Richard N. Cole, J. F. Wilk, Guy Lewis and Robert Unland. Chairman of the dance was R. K. Powell and co-chairman in charge of decorations was Mrs. Phyllis Ziegler.

The annual children's Christmas party was held from 2 to 4 in the afternoon in the Club Co-Ed Room at the YMCA with approximately 200 children, 12 years of age and under, present. Also on hand were about 50 parents.

Entertainment included acts by a magician, Dominic Sansotta, showing of Christmas films and group singing. A clown also entertained and Santa Claus was present to distribute gifts and treats.

Co-chairmen for the party were Valjean Brady and Leo Keith, and assisting them were Miss Enriquita Brenner and Miss Carol Myers.

Probation Ended

ALBUQUERQUE (AP) — U. S. Judge Carl A. Hatch revoked the probation of a 38-year-old Albuquerque man and ordered him to serve a three-year sentence which had been suspended.

The sentence was imposed because Neulon A. Brown reported to his probation officer in an intoxicated condition.

Damage Case Hearing Opens

A Common Pleas jury this morning visited the scene of an accident at the Whirlpool Corp. prior to hearing testimony in a $50,000 damage suit filed against the firm by Jesse Little Jr. of 822 Kenton Ave.

Mr. Little is suing the firm as a result of head injuries he allegedly suffered at a gate on the east side of the plant May 28, 1957. He alleges he struck his head on a steel beam which had been placed across the top of the gate.

In his opening statement this morning, Herschel G. Holland of the Mansfield law firm of Mayer, McDermott and Associates said his client was injured while employed with the Austin Co. of Cleveland which was constructing an addition to the plant. He charged that other employes had been injured at the gate due to negligence by the Whirlpool Corp.

The plaintiff's petition states that the steel beam was placed across the gate at a height of five feet.

Theodore Parsell of the Moore, Myers and Parsell law firm, counsel for the defendant, told the jury this morning that Mr. Little had used the gate several times before the accident and was aware of the position of the beam.

The defense said it will prove that head pains Mr. Little alleges he still suffers are the result of other injuries and an illness and are not caused by the accident at the Whirlpool gate.

National GOP Parley Slated In Des Moines

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans will meet in Des Moines, Iowa, next month to pick a 1960 convention site and start working on that year's election campaign.

The five-day series will include meetings of a convention site committee Jan. 19-20, the GOP Executive Committee Jan. 21, and the full Republican National Committee Jan. 22-23.

The site committee will receive bids from interested cities and may make a recommendation for action by the national committee later in the week. The meeting comes a week after a Democratic site committee receives formal bids at a New Orleans meeting Jan. 16. The Democratic group will report to its full committee Feb. 27.

Seven cities already have submitted informal bids for the Democratic convention, and all are reported interested also in the Republican meeting. They are Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Miami Beach, Philadelphia, New York and Atlantic City.

No Uniform Funds

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) —Four rookie policemen will become plain clothes officers right away for the North Miami Police Department.

There's no money in the municipal budget to put them in uniform.

Fire Reports

FIRE CALLS
(Saturday)

6:34 p.m. to 358 Bradford St., residence of W. R. Griffin, where rubbish on a back porch caught fire. Central Station firemen answered the alarm and reported only a small loss. Cause of the blaze was unknown.

11:25 p.m. to 416 Bellefontaine Ave. where two cars had collided, and were believed to have caught fire. Answering the alarm, Central Station firemen discovered there was no blaze.

INHALATOR CALLS
(Saturday)

6:52 p.m. to 434 Scranton Ave. where Margaret Miller, 18, choked on a piece of hard candy. The inhalator was not used and she was taken to General Hospital in the fire chief's car. She was treated and released.

Costly Yawn

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — James L. Cockrell, 24, should have stifled that yawn.

He stretched so prodigiously in yawning that he dislocated his right shoulder and had to be hospitalized.

The yawn came while Cockrell was attending a class in consumer education at Long Beach State College.

Cockrell is a school teacher, himself.

Held at Upper

UPPER SANDUSKY — Ray Young of Columbus appeared in municipal court here Saturday on a non-support complaint filed by his former wife, Mrs. Lillian Young of Upper Sandusky. The hearing was continued to 9 a.m. Tuesday. Unable to post bond of $500, Mr. Young was committed to the Wyandot County jail. Arrest was by the county sheriff's department.

Fire Hits Church

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)— A fire which started in the basement furnace room routed about 80 worshippers from the Bethel Baptist Church Sunday five minutes before the morning service was scheduled to begin. The fire, extinguished in a half hour, caused an estimated $3,000 damage. Fire Capt. Ralph A. Williams blamed it on an overheated furnace.

The Whole Idea of Christmas

This is the greatest single week of the year for most of Western civilization.

It is the climax of the Season of Hope.

That is the whole idea of Christmas—Hope.

Hope was the foundation stone of Christianity now nearly 2,000 years old.

Before Christianity, Hope had been the only thing that sustained men through the lengthening hours of darkness as the winter solstice approached in the Northern Hemisphere.

Today, for hundreds of millions of human beings, Hope is a brightening light each yearend, a thing to share in commemoration of Christmas.

There can be no more heartfelt commemoration than to make certain that at least one life that would have remained in darkness is brightened, if only for a little while.

That is the spirit of Christmas.

THAT IS THE special light that Christianity has radiated throughout the world—the Hope that can be given by man to man and that all men can draw from a common faith in a God symbolic of brotherly love and human dignity.

The calendar year has been divided up in many ways in an attempt to direct men's thoughts to particular purposes.

There are special days, weeks and even months. There are occasions to honor the living and the dead, events in history, ideas that promise to open new horizons to men and ideas that have led him out of the caves and canyons of antiquity to what men believe is an infinitely improvable world.

BUT OF THEM all, Christmas Week—the climax of a season that lasts from Thanksgiving to New Year's Day—is the most meaningful for the most people.

It is the time of the year when men come closest to understanding how all things might become possible if men could put Hope ahead of despair in their planning and substitute love for bitterness in their emotions.

That is the magic in the air at Christmas—the thing that makes all things seem possible.

GOP Needs a Lyndon Johnson

When even the Republicans in Congress have nothing but praise for Lyndon Johnson, the Texan who leads the Democrats in the Senate, the man must be good.

That is part of the trouble Republicans are going to have when they elect a leader to replace defeated California Sen. Knowland as their leader. Sen. Johnson has set such a high standard his Republican counterpart cannot expect to measure up to it.

Sen. Knowland, though he won respect for his personal integrity, never won admiration for adroitness or tact. Unlike his predecessor, the late Sen. Taft, who could make conservatism seem plausible and attractive, Sen. Knowland's heavy-handed conservatism rarely was either plausible or attractive to anyone, except those more conservative than he was.

The leading contender for Republican leadership in the Senate is Sen. Dirksen of Illinois. He is being opposed by a self-styled "insurgent" group whose rallying cry seems to be "the foreward look," like the sales slogan for a well known automobile.

This means, as directed at Sen. Dirksen, that he does not meet the group's specifications for Senate leadership. But for the country as a whole it only raises the question of where forward-looking Republicans, or any other kind, will find a Senate leader who can do for them what Sen. Johnson does for Senate Democrats; namely, keep them out of one another's hair when every fiber of their polotical being as a coalition is urging them to start internecine warfare.

Among Republicans, there is this same powerful urge to pit brother against brother. The problem is not peculiar to one political party. That is why it takes a Lyndon Johnson or a Bob Taft to maintain a working organization and thereby to maintain the two-party system of U.S. government.

There are no Bob Tafts in sight. And there is only one Lyndon Johnson in sight.

No matter how strong a senator may seem to be in his own state, or even as a spokesman for a section, his strength in the two-party system is measured by his ability to command the respect of other members of the Senate as a party leader. Sen. Knowland never made the grade as Sen. Taft's heir to Republican leadership in the Senate. It is doubtful if Sen. Dirksen would do any better, or that anyone proposed by his opponents would do any better, either.

A genuine party leader is about the rarest thing in government, which accounts for those perennial hardies in the House, Rep. Rayburn and Rep. Martin, and will account for the probability that Sen. Johnson will be boss of the Democrats as long as he wants the job and Texans send him to the Senate.

Too Much Power for One Man

James Hoffa of the Teamsters Union has struck fear into America with his announced intention to organize public employes, including policemen.

There is no law that says public employes cannot be members of unions. Many employes belong to unions, and with unionism on the march it is likely many more will belong to them in the years ahead.

But there is a well established principle, which has been embodied in law in some states, that public employes should not have the right to strike.

The reason is obvious. A strike involves government to some degree, whether it merely challenges government ability to maintain public order during a clash of its citizens, or whether it challenges government ability to preserve public safety during a time of crisis.

A strike of government employes against the government would be a form of insurrection.

That cannot be permitted.

Government cannot let itself be put at the whim and mercy of union policy committees, of interlopers who burrow into unionism for various reasons, including in some notorious instances the commission of treason, or of the kind of "strong man" who thrives in the environment of unionism that now exists in the United States.

It is an environment that pays its greatest premiums to ruthlessness and has proved to be alarmingly favorable to terrorism and lawlessness.

Hoffa's union and Hoffa, himself, can command no public confidence on the score of what would be likely if public employes were controlled by the Teamsters Union. To make certain no one can underestimate what he would be capable of doing, Hoffa has said he would order state legislatures to repeal all laws prohibiting strikes of public employes.

That would make him the most powerful man in the United States—more powerful than the selected president.

That would be too much power for any one man. It would be like setting up a super-government. Americans would not tolerate such a thing.

If Hoffa tries it—and he is no bluffer—he can succeed only to the extent that he meets with an overwhelmingly favorable response from the public employes he proposes to organize. Laws and principles by themselves cannot stop him.

But resourceful and aggressive as he and the Teamster organizers are, they cannot get to 1st base without the help of the millions of men and women on government payrolls who constitute "government."

If they did not understand why it would be wrong for them to belong to an organization that could destroy government, the battle would be lost before it began.

The issue is not the right of public employes to bargain collectively. It is the right that Hoffa and like-minded labor leaders would arrogate to themselves to suspend government by calling a strike against it to win their demands—any and all demands that might come to their minds.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

"Slacker!" declared the missus. "You're letting me bear the Christmas-card burden as usual." We argued we were busy.

"You're never busier than when I get out the holiday card list," she said, demanding, "Shall we send one to the Stookles?"

"Who are the Stookles?" we asked.

"I'm not sure, but we get one from them every year. I think we met them in an elevator in Quebec 30 years ago," said the wife, who by this time had decided to send one anyhow.

"How about Gideon Callibuster, your company's second vice president?"

"He hasn't been with the company for 10 years," we told her.

"We've been sending him a card every Yuletide," she said.

"That's your fault. By the way don't forget the Snodgrasses. They're very good friends."

"What's the full name and address?"

"It's either D. J. or T.W. Everybody calls him Chet and he lives either in Sioux City, Bangor or Key West."

"Shall we cut out the Frisbies?"

"Why?" we asked.

"Because I don't know them. Neither do you."

"We've been sending cards to them ever since the first world war. I hate to drop people who have been strangers to us so long."

"What about the Gumbickels?" she asked.

"The couple your grandmother used to know?"

"No. These are the Gumbickles we inherited from your uncle's Christmas card list. They live in Indonesia."

"Let's cut out all friends who live in Indonesia, Tibet or Outer Mongolia," we suggested.

"There you go violating the true Yuletide spirit," said the missus.

This gave us a chance for our customary runout powder. We assumed an injured mood and stomped into the cold night.

The Trapper Trapped

Christmas in Schools

By Ralph McGill

Are the public-school authorities throughout the United States violating the "law of the land" by permitting Christmas celebrations during school hours?

Lawrence

Nine of the highest national organizations of the Jewish church have just issued a statement declaring that observance of religious festivals of any kind in the public schools violates "the traditional American principal of separation of church and state."

But what is the "law of the land" and does the Constitution really forbid all religious teaching in the public schools?

The Supreme Court of the United States took it upon itself in 1948 to say that religious instruction during school hours, with each religion being given equal opportunity to hold its own services in separate sections of the same school buildings, is a violation of the Constitution.

Then the Supreme Court reversed itself in part in 1952 and said it is constitutional to release the children to go to religious classes during school hours provided these are carried on in other than public-school buildings.

UNDER THIS FORMULA those children who do not want any religious instruction are required to remain in the classrooms. This has been severely criticized as unequal but it is nevertheless the latest court ruling on the subject.

In New York City, moreover, attempts have been made to introduce into the public schools a joint celebration of Christmas and the Jewish "Festival of Lights," known as "Hanukah," as well as a combined observance of Easter and Passover. But the statement just issued by the Jewish national organizations deplores any such cooperative services as also a violation of "the conscience of many religious persons, Jews and Christians alike."

The statement recommends that students be permitted to refrain from any participation in religious holiday observances if they so desire.

This brings into the news a topic that has many other controversial aspects as well. The Constitution has only one sentence on the subject. It says: "Congress shall make no laws respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise therof."

When the Supreme Court forbad the use of public school buildings during school hours to permit religious instruction by teachers of different faiths to their own groups, was this a prohibition of the "free exercise" or religion?

Father Virgil C. Blum, professor of political science at Marquette University, is the author of a book, just out, entitled "Freedom of Choice in Education."

He has long advocated a certificate and tax-credit plan whereby parents would be given some form of subsidy out of local taxes to enable them to send their children to whatever schools they wish, so as to get whatever religious instruction they prefer.

HE DECLARES in his book that "the rights of parents who believe in the Christian or Jewish religion and think that it should be taught to their children in school are as fundamental as any other constitutional rights," he adds:

"Parents who demand for their children an education from which all mention of God has been dehydrated are within their rights under the Constitution. But, when government demands that all children conform to this established secular religion of the public schools as a condition for sharing in educational benefits, the children's religious liberty is seriously abridged. This alternative of the dilemma is totally unacceptable to parents of every religious belief who desire a God-centered education for their children."

The topic has a new significance nowadays, since the Supreme Court has become the "supreme school board" of the nation and decides cases on sociological and psychological factors as they relate to the education of the child in the public schools.

But if the people are to make sure that the problem will be handled as they wish, they will have to seek a constitutional amendment. This would insure them, for example, refunds in taxes or tax credits so they could send their children to private schools that teach religion or to public schools where "released time" during school hours would be granted to children of particular faiths, who would be taught in public school buildings by their own religious instructors.

It will be noted that the New York City Board of Education, in its six-point program to combat crime in the schools, says that, in the community's efforts to solve the problem of juvenile delinquency: "There is no substitute for the principles of religion and morality."

Send No Money

By Truman Twill

The Cult of Resters, whose purposes I announced recently, has been picking up converts faster than I expected.

Just as I said when announcing it, this idea can whittle down the bizzy-bee pretensions of a bushed and pooped civilization in a hurry.

It never was intended that human beings should knock themselves out, going faster and faster to stay where they are, which is two steps from the grave.

There has been more motion than progress.

An application from one "tired mind" said he is bone-tired from his way of living and a pushover for a cult that promises to put callouses on his resting apparatus, instead of his working apparatus.

"Please send me a membership card in your new Order of Resters," says the application, "and explain slowly and plainly how I can help promote your great idea while resting. I think you've thought of something."

Sure I've thought of something, mister, because nine out of 10 people in this country are sick of the way they've been living. They do not want to believe this is the way it is going to be forever and ever—but they do not know how to change it.

They are so imbued with the idea they must run faster to stay where they are that they do not know how to jump off the treadmill. It has passed out of their thoughts that the main difference between a man and a mule is that a man can choose to be one or the other but a mule must keep on being a mule.

It is dedicated to the proposition that men and women do not owe it to themselves or anybody else to work beyond the limit of their endurance. Just that.

The Cult of Resters wants everybody to be fresh and rested for every task that comes along. Its members will work only inside their limitations of energy and on their own terms.

They will refuse to ulcerate themselves with tension about what they are doing or to pop the valves in their pumps trying to push too many things uphill.

As far as they are concerned, a thing must be taken in stride or not at all. They are only going to live once, and there is no percentage in living as if they were going to have a second chance later.

The Cult of Resters will use alarm clocks to signify it is time to lie down and go to sleep. A Rester will never use an alarm clock to wake up; waking up is a natural function of nature, which wakes up a sleeper when he is through being tired. There is no task man ever has performed or is likely to perform that could not be postponed — and most of them could have been postponed indefinitely.

Yes, mister, I have thought of something. Nine out of 10 people have been thinking of it, too. They're tired of rushing around, tired of being chased around, tired of being kicked around. They want to drop off to sleep and not wake up until they're rested enough to take bizzy-bee-ism in their stride.

They're ready to join the Cult of Resters.

P.S.: Do not send cash with applications. That is too much like those cash-on-the-line outfits. This isn't a labor union, a religious outfit, or a trade association — just a Cult of Resters. No sweat. No profit. Just a more abundant life.

Two Wings—Same Bird

By James Marlow

The new proclamation of aims by the British Labor party shows an almost exact parallel with the aims of the Democratic-Labor alliance here. The slight difference is what makes the close identity all the more obvious.

This ought to be the real answer to the question so often asked here: "Will Reuther, et a., form a labor party?"

My answer to that is not "Never," for I am unwilling in this world of chance to use that word. But I should say that it would be strange if a group — which over the nation is in firm possession of a party with traditions, a name and whatever good will is involved — flouted a new name which might excite and repel the great number of people who call themselves "liberal" and who are not in the labor movement, as well as those who by habit and tradition like to call themselves Democrats.

During the 25 years since President Roosevelt proclaimed a New Deal, the objectives of American liberals have become fairly well formulated and understood.

THE RESULT is that these objectives have become almost identical with those of the British Labor party, which likes to call itself "socialist."

Let us examine the new and beautifully printed manifesto of Hugh Gaitskell's party entitled, "The Future Labor Offers You."

First comes the home. The Labor party wants controlled rents. That is an old story in many places in the United States, including New York.

It would lend for homes at low interest. We have it.

It would clear slums. We are at it in a big way. Moreover, the aims of the new Congress as well as those of the AFL-CIO and the ADA all propose housing of all sorts, with government loans and subsidies.

"Labor offers" full employment. This was the full-throated cry of Democrats all over the United States in the recent campaign. Only in the United States the liberals would provide full employment at government expense. The British manifesto doesn't go that far.

In education the British Labor party would set up a Royal Commission to look into education. We have had our White House Conference and many committees and commissions at work.

In health and medicine, the British have a national health service. The Labor party thinks it is a "boon to the nation."

There are many who think otherwise. But when you add up the Democratic liberals' aims and those of the AFL-CIO, you would have something very close to it.

IT IS MOST interesting that the Labor party backs completely away from price controls. But the net of the advice of economists such as Galbraith and Keyserling, who are the intellectual guides of the Democratic-labor alliance, is to try that as a cure for inflation.

Pensions and old-age assistance. We have them and will get more. So do the British, and the Labor party would give more.

Only on nationalization would the British prototypes of our "forward-lookers" go a bit further. But their proposal is milk and water compared to their attempts when they were in power. It simply didn't work. And so they would not go beyond restoring steel to "full public ownership" and restore "road haulage" to public ownership. So far as steel is concerned, the government still owns nearly half of the industry in Britain but private owners control it. So far as "road haulage" is concerned, consider the uproar by Hoffa and other unions if such a thing were tried.

They know that it is one thing to use terrorism, sabotage, and racketeering against defenseless owners here, and another to try such practices against the government of the United States.

And so we have a parallel between our leftists and those over the seas. Why should anyone want a labor party? We practically have it, nicely labeled, as it is.

Success Story With a Twist

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

Ever get tired of hearing about the guy who left a small town to make good in the big city?

Well, here's the story of a guy who got tired of the big city and left it to do better elsewhere.

HAL BOYLE

Harry Singer, a self-made millionaire, is a stocky, dark personable man who probably could sell a wrist watch to a century plant.

He was born in New York only 37 years ago, the son of an Austrian immigrant who made a hard living in the handbag business. At 18 he quit college because he found it too hard both to eat and study on an $8-a-week delivery boy's wage.

"I ALSO FELT dad couldn't go on working forever the way he had been," Harry recalled. "So we borrowed $300 in 1939 and started our own handbag factory."

It prospered from the start, and the firm was doing a million-dollar-a-year business when Singer wearied of the big city rat race, sold out, and went to Florida.

"I just got tired of New York City and everything about it," he said. "I got tired of working 12 hours a day. I got tired of spending two hours a day on commuter trains. I got tired of the climate."

Harry settled in the Miami area and went into the real estate field at the beginning of Florida's tremendous postwar building surge. Since then he has handled the brokerage on real estate deals totaling in the neighborhood of a 100 million dollars.

He also invested his own funds cannily. Today he owns the land under four hotels and motels. He is building in Miami the new Central Shopping Plaza, a 40-acre, 10-million-dollar project.

Next month he opens the seven-million-dollar Montmartre, newest hotel along glittering Miami Beach. It is situated on the old Firestone estate just north of the swank Eden Roc and Fontainebleau. It took Singer six years of legal battling to break zoning restrictions barring hotels from that part of the beach.

HARRY DOESN'T like to be classified as "a booster," but he does feel the growth future of Florida—and other areas outside New York City—are unlimited.

He has a modest success formula.

"All it takes to get ahead," he said, "is a lot of imagination, a willingness to gamble, and 95 per cent luck.

"I've met a lot of smarter people than I who didn't make the grade simply for one reason—they didn't get the breaks.

"But I do think one thing more is important. You have to have a willingness to fight for what is worthwhile."

Being a millionaire at 37 isn't even Singer's idea of success.

"The successful man really is the one who is satisfied," he said. "I don't think I've found that kind of success at all. Peace of mind is very important, and I still pace back and forth in my head too much."

ASKED WHAT he misses most from his old life in New York City, Harry, shivering in his tan polo coat, looked down at the icy pavement, up at the gaunt, wintry metropolitan skyline.

"Nothing," he said firmly. "It's a great place to visit, but I'd rather make my life somewhere else.

"Here nobody really cares what you do. But in other places if you do something big or worthwhile, the community is proud of you for it."

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Will you help me in a purely humanitarian venture? Every time I turn around a day is being set aside for something or someone. We have Mother's Day, Father's Day, St Valentine's Day, Columbus Day and Dog Day.

Some causes get a full week. There's a Prevent Forest Fires Week, Be Good to Your Secretary Week and Cracked Cookie Week.

What I want is a little recognition for girls who have missed out on matrimony because they refused to submit to "Sample Weekends" and other modern experiments.

We are more numerous than you think. I know of five in this office alone We are the task force for virtue, the last holdouts in a vanishing tribe. And it costs money. Our taxes are high because we are single It's expensive to keep the gray out of our hair.

The girls who have deserted our ranks (one left for Cuba with "a friend" last week) never give us a backward glance.

Please, Ann, we aren't asking for a full week like the National Bunion Sufferers Society All we want is a single day.—MAIDENLY MUSKETEERS.

Dear Maidenly Musketeer: I'm so weepy I can hardly see to type the reply—but here it is. I never did buy the theory that nice girls finish last. A trip to Cuba with "a friend" is no short cut to the altar, so quit drooling.

In the absence of a special day honoring you single girls who are missing the boat, why not cut in on Cracked Cookie Week?

Better Than Average

Dear Ann Landers: I had my third baby several weeks ago. I sent 22 birth announcements to close friends and relatives. To date I have received three cards and no gifts.

Whenever one of my friends has a baby I always send a card as soon as I hear the good news. My husband says I am overly conscientious and it doesn't pay. I used to argue with him, but now I think he may be right.

I hate to lose faith in mankind but what is one to think? Sometimes I feel so blue I cry. Please give me your ideas on the subject. —DISAPPOINTED.

Dear Disappointed: Did you send announcements or invoices? Apparently you're more concerned with tangible results than sharing the good news with friends.

According to experts in the direct mail field, a 2 per cent response is good. If you got three cards back on a mailing of 22 pieces it's much better than you had a right to expect. And quit crying. If this is the most shattering thing that has happened to you—you're lucky.

Love Won't Melt

Dear Ann: I'm going steady with a very fine fellow who graduated from high school in June. Barry works for his uncle but next month he is going into the service. I am 17 and a senior.

We know we can't be married until he gets his two years of Army service out of the way but we want to pledge our love by exchanging friendship rings My folks are against it. I've tried to explain that this is not the same as being engaged. It's one step above going steady.

I've dated many other fellows and I like Barry better than anyone I've ever known. He feels the same about me. Why should we waste time on other people when we know we were meant for each other? Please be sensible.—FELICIA.

Dear Felicia: For the unteenth time, this is the way we handle a romance between a high school senior and a fellow who owes his Uncle Sam two years of his life:

We don't put ourselves in solitary confinement and spend two beautiful years looking for the mailman.

We date others and develop outside interests. When a boy and girl reserve themselves for a certain party, they become dull and ingrown.

Tell Barry he is free to date others and that you want to do the same. The senior year in high school is no time to be shackled by a long-distance romance.

If it's love it won't melt. If you two were meant for each other, you'll know it when he comes home—and you can take it from there.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Marion Star enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Pacifist Minister in Cincinnati Refusing To Appeal Sentence

CINCINNATI (AP)— A pacifist minister who tried to show hatred for war by not paying income tax will start a prison term soon. But echoes of his conviction still stir the councils of his church.

The Rev. Maurice F. McCrackin faces a six month federal prison term and a $20 fine on a charge of failing to answer a summons to talk over his taxes.

Fred A. Dewey, one of his court-appointed attorneys and a law professor at the University of Cincinnati, said Sunday night because of the minister's wishes, an appeal will not be made.

"We told him we think there are good grounds for an appeal," Dewey said, "but the last word we had from him was that he does not want us to appeal.

"We felt that the government failed to prove its case—failed to show any delegation of authority for the summons—and also that there were improper matters in connection with the sentence.

The Rev. Mr. McCrackin has been pastor of a combined Episcopal-Presbyterian church and director of a church - connected neighborhood house.

Episcopal and Presbyterian leaders said last Friday they will take over the neighborhood house and dismiss its governing board, which also governs the church, effective at the end of the year.

But U.S. Fowler, board chairman, said Sunday night the group plans to fight the ouster action. A meeting is set tonight on this and the problem of getting another pastor.

Twenty-six clergymen and educators late Sunday issued a statement saying they think citizens and officials of church, state and community "who may have special responsibility" should respect the Rev. Mr. McCrackin's right of conscience.

The group was headed by Dean Walter G. Muelder of Boston University School of Theology.

Giants Overpower Browns 10-0 in Clash for Title

New York Defensive Unit Shines; Conerly Scores TD

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Notre Dame had its Four Horsemen, Fordham its Seven Blocks of Granite. Now we have the 11 Hangmen of the New York football Giants.

The 11 Hangmen who form the defensive unit of the Giants, tightened the noose around the neck of Jimmy Brown Sunday afternoon and sprung the trap on Coach Paul Brown's Cleveland Browns

Because of their inspired defensive play and the opportunistic offense of Chuck Conerly, Frank Gifford, Alex Webster and Co., the Giants have won the Eastern Conference title of the National Football League.

Giants To Meet Colts

The 10-0 shutout of Cleveland engineered by Conerly's first touchdown of the season—on a lateral from a double reverse — and Pat Summerall's 13th field goal, sent the Giants into the championship game next Sunday with the Baltimore Colts.

The title game also will be played at Yankee Stadium, scene of the Giants' two exciting games with the Browns. It will be carried on network television (NBC) with New York and a 75-mile area blacked out.

Once again it was the grudging defense of the 11 hangmen that thrilled the icy crowd of 61,274.

The Giants' four-man defensive line was tremendous. Andy Robustelli and Jim Katcavage at the ends and Rosey Grier and Dick (Little Mo) Modzelewski at the tackles simply wrecked the Cleveland offense. With Sam Huff backing up the middle, taking dead aim at the great Jimmy Brown, and Cliff Livingston and Harland Svare adding their brawn as linebackers, Cleveland made only 24 yards rushing. Jimmy Brown, who set a league record with 1,527 yards in regular season play, was held to eight yards in seven carries.

The alert deep defense of Lindon Crow (he intercepted two), Carl Karilivacz, Jim Patton and Em Tunnell turned in an excellent job when Cleveland's badly rushed passers took to the air. Milt Plum, who was injured in the first half, and Jim Ninowski, completed 10 of 27.

Conerly Scores

But all the defense in the world wouldn't have helped the Giants if they hadn't been able to score. The only touchdown was a tricky thing on a frozen field, an 18-yard play late in the first period.

Conerly took the ball from center and handed off to Webster coming around from right halfback. Webster gave it to Gifford, reversing from his left halfback spot. Gifford cut through the right side of the line to the 10 and then tossed a basketball-type lateral that carried about 15 or 20 yards to Conerly, who went all the way. "I don't know when I scored before," said Conerly, the 37-year-old quarterback from Ole Miss who has thrown 144 touchdown passes.

"It was something new we put in this week," said Conerly. "The lateral on the end was optional I'm out there and he (Gifford) knows I'm there"

The Giants' other points came on Summerall's 26-yard field goal, set up by a 35-yard pass from Conerly to Bob Schnelker.

Brown Stopped Cold

Jimmy Brown simply was defensed right out of the ballpark, with Huff his particular tormentor.

"That's the end of Brown for this year and am I glad," said Huff as friends crowded around his locker.

In the other clubhouse, Jimmy had no excuses "They just played even harder than last week, more determined," he said.

Coach Paul Brown, whose Browns were blanked for the first time since 1950 and beaten three times by the same team for the first time in any one season, was generous with praise.

"You saw a fine team today, men," he said. "It was a tough, hard nosed game. We were just overpowered in the line They had a full head of steam up We had to pass and it had to be excellent. We weren't excellent"

Howell Praises Defense

Coach Jim Lee Howell praised his defensive unit.

"They played the best defensive ball I ever saw a club play against a real good team."

Cleveland's only real threat came in the second half. After recovering Don Maynard's fumble of a punt, they moved to the 4 before the defense ganged up on them. Pushed back to the 16, Plum's pass was intercepted by Huff on the first play of the fourth period.

The action became bitter at times. In one flare-up Mel Triplett, the Giants' fullback, was tossed out of the game for throwing a punch or two after an altercation with Don Colo and Don Paul.

Shelby Defeats Galion 67-51 in Cage Action

GALION — Shelby visited the Galion hardcourt Saturday night and handed their hosts a 67-51 defeat. Shelby led all the way, having an 18-11 quarter score, a 32-21 halftime lead and a 50-37 edge after three periods of play.

Lenny Reidel led the Shelby attack with 27 points. Ray Jackson posted 15 for Galion.

The Galion reserves won 44-27.

Ohio Golfer Ends High

MONROE, La. (AP)— An Alliance, Ohio, golfer, Gordon Jones, finished in a four-way tie for seventh with a 217 in the $2,500 Twin City Open here It wound up Sunday, with Davis Love of El Dorado, Ark., the winner.

FAMILIAR SCENE. A New York Giant with the ball was a familiar sight Sunday, as the Giants completely befuddled the Cleveland Browns to down them 10-0 and grab the Eastern Division title. It was the first time since 1950 that Cleveland was unable to score Here Frank Gifford, fancy Giant back, carries for short yardage, as Cleveland's Junior Wren (42), Don Colo (70) and Vince Costello (50) move in to take him down. The Giants' Al Barry is on the ground. New York meets the Baltimore Colts Dec. 28 for the NFL championship. (UPI Telephoto)

Kuharich's appointment was announced by the Rev. Edmund P. Joyce, executive vice president and chairman of the faculty board in control of athletics at Notre Dame.

Kuharich signed a four-year contract

Brennan was dismissed after a 6 won-4 lost season which brought his five-year record at Notre Dame to 32 victories and 18 defeats No specific reason was given for his dismissal.

Kuharich, a South Bend native, began his coaching career for the Irish in 1938, the year of his graduation. He served as assistant freshman coach while taking graduate studies.

Athletic Director Ed (Moose) Krause said today Kuharich would be in South Bend Tuesday.

Brennan's dismissal was recommended by the athletic board to Notre Dame's president, the Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh.

In 1940-41 Kuharich played pro ball with the Chicago Cardinals and the next four years served in the Navy.

Line Coach With Steelers

He returned to coaching in 1946 as line coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers. He moved to the University of San Francisco as line coach in 1947, became head coach of the Dons in 1948 and coached there for four years, his last season undefeated.

He was Chicago Cardinal head coach in 1952 and scouted for various clubs in 1953. He joined the Redskins in 1954 as line coach and became head coach of the club in August of that year.

In 1955, Kuharich was named professional coach of the year. He had been given a five-year contract at Washington this year.

Kuharich is married and the father of two sons.

Brennan, 30, said he is not sure what his plans are, but "I'm sure I'd like to remain in coaching."

No Future Plans

Brennan said he is not sure what his plans are but "I'd like to remain in coaching. It all happened so fast, I haven't had time to reflect. I'll think about it for a couple of days and decide after that."

Although he experienced only one losing season, Brennan's stay at Notre Dame was turbulent. After a successful tenure with Mt. Carmel High School in Chicago where his teams won an unprecedented three straight city championships, Brennan went to Notre Dame as freshman coach in 1953.

Early in 1954, he was named to succeed Leahy who quit with a record of 87-11-9 — second only to Rockne's 105-12-5.

Because Brennan was only 25 then, there was some rumbling but this died out quickly when Notre Dame finished with a 9-1 record, losing only to Purdue. In 1955, Notre Dame had a respectable 8-2 record.

Irish Lose 5th Contest

Marion Catholic Walloped 78-38 in Ridgedale Game

In theory, lightning never strikes twice in the same place.

But it struck Marion Catholic's basketball team Saturday night time after time and on the sending end of the bolts was a fancy Ridgedale quintet By game's end, Bill Phillips Rockets had accounted for a 78-38 victory.

Ray Robbins' Irish outdid themselves in a display of futility that found them behind 16-9 at the quarter, 37-13 at halftime, and 54-28 after three periods of action.

The Rockets, exhibiting fine ball handling, rimmed Catholic buckets for 21 goals and 16 free throws, while holding the Robbinsmen to 12 completions from the field and 14 dunks from the foul line

All told, Ridgedale rolled in 31 of 73 goal attempts for 41 per cent, hitting on 16 of 32 from the charity circle for a percentage of 50. Robbins' boys were 14 for 37 for 47 per cent in the field, and 12 of 32 for 32 per cent in the shot department.

IT WAS THE fifth straight loss for the Irish, while Phillips' cagers chalked up win No. 5 in six outings.

Following their 16-point outburst in the initial session, Ridgedale hit for 21 digits in the second frame, 17 in the third and 24 in the finale. Marion, tallying nine in the opener, managed but four in the second period, 15 in the third and 10 in the fourth.

The Irish, whose "big man" took on the stature of midgets as Ridgedale waltzed through and around them, were never in the game—from a contention of victory point of view.

The Rockets, playing fast-break basketball from the outset, had the best of the floor play and the rebounding and midway in the first quarter had the Irish treed

When the storm finally subsided, Ridgedale had four of its six participants owning double number point totals. Joe Moore canned nine goals and five free throws for 23 points to top the game's scoring Fred Moore racked up 19. while Walt Breitigan got 15 and Steve Williams had 12.

It fell to Marion Catholic's big Paul Hurney, a sophomore, to take scoring honors for the losers. Hurney got five from the field and seven at the foul line for 17 points. Tom Rish, whose 6-6 height availed him naught against the speedy Rockets, posted six points.

The game was barely under way when Ridgedale's Fred Moore lobbed in a long shot to give the Rockets a 2-0 lead and start the Robbinsmen on their skid to defeat.

Phillips' cagers zeroed in on the Catholic bucket from the corners and the sides like they owned them and with 2:45 left in the second quarter had a 14-point lead at 25-11. By then the only question being asked by the fans on hand was how high the Rockets might fire the count

MARION SHOWED its most evident spark of life in the third quarter, after Robbins sent Larry Roth, whose ability gives promise of a more efficient Irish offense next year, into the action The Catholic sophomore got his four points in that frame, but his floor play helped shake the Robbinsmen out of their lethargy long enough to account for 15 tallies.

Robbins had little to say at game's end, but observed that his crew had manned the boat with something less than "cool efficiency" Phillips noted that his boys had "looked ragged" in spots, but expressed general satisfaction with their game.

In the reserve game, the Rocket frosh clipped the junior Robbinsmen 47-24, taking a 13-9 quarter lead, a 25-15 halftime advantage and a 38-17 edge.

'Y' Swimmers Win 100th for Coach Foster

Marion "Y" tankers handed Coach Warren Foster his 100th coaching victory Saturday as they swept a doubleheader from the hapless Piqua YMCA.

The junior team made a start toward their third straight undefeated season with an unexpected 47-20 win, while a four-man intermediate squad took firsts in every event they entered to win 45-37, bringing their season record to 1-1.

The junior team won every event but one with former state prep champion Bob White a double winner in the butterfly and the breaststroke. Also winning in fast times were Jack Howser, 40-yard freestyle; Ken Tillman, 40 yard backstroke; Mike Bartley, (diving) and the medley quartet of Tillman, Shambaugh, Lenavitt, and Howser. Piqua's Fogt took the century freestyle while Marion forfeited the freestyle relay to the host team.

The intermediate squad was reduced to four swimmers due to the mechanical failure of one Marion car, but still came through with an easy win despite forfeiting over 15 points. Marion's sprint stars Bruce Kohler and Bob Finney flished one-two in the 40-yard freestyle and the locals were never in trouble as Ed Cooper, Dan Thompson, and Kohler were double winners and Finney added the diving first to his second. The the quartet combined to win the medley relay to put the meet beyond the reach of the host team.

Tonight the Marion squad will be in action here at 7 in defense of its Marion Relays crown.

Hike in Attendance Noted

Baltimore Colts' Fans Are Rated Among Most Rabid

By GEORGE BOWEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP)—"Stick with those Colts!"

During 10 football seasons, this has been Baltimore's version of the "Wait Until Next Year" solace from one fan backing a loser to another.

Baltimore fans did stick. And this is "next year."

They have the Western Conference champion in the National Football League. They'll play the New York Giants Sunday for all the marbles.

Fans Deserve Credit

Any NFL official will tell you it's the people of Baltimore who deserve the credit.

The fans were famous before the team. At home and on excursions, their noisy, colorful antics had strangers gawking.

"The Colts don't have followers, they have disciples," it has been said.

They have been willing to do their penance in cash.

In 1947, when Baltimore got into pro football with the All-America Conference, the average attendance was 24,000 although the team won only twice.

Win Single Game

Next year, the average rose to 28,000. In 1949, it was about 24,000, although the Colts won only one game—on the road.

It was a little too much for even Baltimore fans to take the next year when the Colts joined the NFL and won only one game. Average attendance dropped to 15,832 and it cost Baltimore its franchise.

The franchise came back in 1953 and the average climbed to 28,000. Attendance has gone up steadily since to a bell ringing 53,460 the past season.

"I knew it was a nutty town over pro football," commented Art Rooney, owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers, "But I didn't think it was that nutty."

The Colt band never stopped playing. During the two years the city had no pro franchise, the 80-piece organization — including teachers, policemen and taxi drivers—stayed intact by hiring out for such jobs as the Miss America pageant in Atlantic City.

Majorette Corps

corps of majorettes and one of cheer leaders, about half of them married women.

Some 6,000 Colt fans made a trip to New York in 1953 and more than 10,000 stormed Gotham the past season.

But the real trademark of the Colt fan is the show he puts on at games. They make pro-Colt signs and banners drape them over the stadium and parade at halftime with them around the field.

Many dress in costumes and join the formal entertainment at intermission.

MCI Records 59-51 Victory Over LaRue 5

The Marion Correctional Institution Hornets came from behind in the second quarter, then held on to post a 59-51 victory over a strong LaRue Merchants team. The game was played on the MCI gym floor.

The Hornets found themselves on the short end of a 12-10 score at the end of the first stanza but managed to forge ahead in the second quarter and led at halftime by a 28-24 mark.

The Merchants whittled the MCI lead to two points in the third quarter and trailed by just 42-40 going into the last session, but the Hornets pulled away in the final quarter to wrap up the game.

Byrd paced the victors with 21 points followed by 15 by Posey. Buyer dumped in 17 points for the LaRue squad and was the only member of the team to break into the double figure scoring column.

The appointment, announced today, is the second to the incoming governor's cabinet. It was announced Sunday that Grant Keys, mayor of Elyria, is to be state highway safety director.

Terhune, 50, operates 600 acres of farm land as Bobana Farms, Inc., in Fayette and Madison counties. A 1933 graduate of Ohio State University, where he played football, wrestled, ran track and was university heavyweight boxing champion as a senior, he returned to earn his master's degree in 1939.

When Harding High School's football squad wound up its 1958 schedule with an undefeated and untied record, United Press International picked it as the best high school football team in the state. Gordon Larson (left), head coach of the Presidents, was presented the UPI trophy by Haskell Short (right), Columbus bureau manager of the news service, at today's luncheon of the Marion Lions Club in Hotel Harding. Looking on at center is Lawrence Larsen, president of the Lions. Harding was selected the top grid team by a UPI board of coaches.

Air

just before the Christmas season.

The strikes disrupted travelers' plans for the second consecutive holiday. Pre-Thanksgiving air travel was choked by a strike at Trans World Airways as well as at Eastern. The TWA strike has since been settled.

American operates chiefly on cross-country runs east and west with 195 planes it says represent the largest domestic fleet. They go in and out of 77 cities in 26 states.

Eastern flies mostly north and south in the eastern part of the country. Its 188 planes serve 123 cities in 25 states, plus the Canadian cities of Ottawa and Montreal, Mexico City, Bermuda and Puerto Rico.

Wages are the main issue in the American dispute. The pilots contend that the pay scale of other lines is higher than theirs, which ranges from $400 to $1,602 monthly. An American spokesman said $2,234 would be the top pay under a company offer.

The company claimed that an hour before the strike deadline, the union renewed a demand for a 75-hour work month instead of 85 hours for pilots on jet planes.

Eastern said its flight engineers went out because the company adopted the recommendation of a presidential board that the engineers should have pilot training for service on jets.

American puts its normal daily passenger load at 24,000 persons, and claims it ranks first in the number of passenger miles flown and in air cargo. Eastern cites a figure of 25,000 persons carried daily.

The New York City post office said the airmail service has not been hampered by the strike. Other airlines are handling the mail usually assigned to American and Eastern.

Cincinnatian Critically Injured by Stray Bullet

CINCINNATI (AP) — A postal worker, accidentally shot during a police auto chase early Sunday, is in critical condition at General Hospital.

Police said Casey Weaver, 54, was apparently struck in the chest by a police bullet that ricocheted. Weaver was walking home.

A passerby discovered Weaver lying unconscious on the sidewalk and called police. Investigators said the police cruiser started after a car with obscured license plates and Patrolman Raymond Easterling fired five shots at the car.

Officers said the pursued car was halted at a roadblock and its driver, Joseph W. Bohanon, 28, of Newport, Ky., was taken into custody. Police said Bohanon gave no reason for fleeing.

Bus Falls Into Ravine, 70 Are Killed in Mexico

OAXACA, Mexico (AP) — A speeding bus plunged into a ravine near here, killing 70 persons Sunday in one of Mexico's worst highway accidents.

The only two survivors were critically injured.

The bus was crammed with villagers returning to San Dionisio from Sunday market day at nearby Tlacolula. It had a legal capacity of 40, but people were riding on top and on the rear bumper and hanging from the doors.

The driver apparently lost control on a curve and ran off the road.

Stores To Close

Policeman Spots Stolen Car, 2 Boys Held for Its Theft

Alert action by a Marion city patrolman resulted in quick recovery of a car stolen from Bucyrus Saturday night by teen - age boys.

Theft of the car was reported to Bucyrus police by the owner, Garfield Hensley of near Bucyrus, at about 6 p.m. Saturday. Bucyrus police broadcast a description of the car.

At 7:36 p.m., Marion Patrolman Francis O'Hara was walking across the street at Main and Center and saw a car fitting the description of the stolen car. He ran to the middle of the street, where the car was waiting to make a right turn and ordered the driver to pull to the curb.

The two youths, aged 15 and 14, later told police that they saw the car parked in Bucyrus with the keys in the ignition switch and decided to take a ride in it.

They were turned over to Bucyrus authorities and the car was returned to the owner.

Christmas

Mrs. A. She was badly burned and later died from complications suffered in an explosion which swept their modest home this fall.

Much of the clothing and furniture was destroyed, leaving the family destitute. A double bed and a baby bed lost in the blaze have never been replaced and youngsters sleep cramped together as a result.

Baby clothing is needed for the younger tots and warm clothing for all members of the family. The children range in age from 1 to 18.

Toys and food would be greatly appreciated by these youngsters who have known nothing but hardship and sorrow during the last few months. Their father tries hard to provide for them, but his meager income can not satisfy even their most important needs.

THE YOUNGER children hope Santa Claus will bring a Christmas tree. But even if he does, there will be no ornaments to put on it as these were destroyed in the fire.

Can someone help this family by sharing just a small part of their holiday happiness through a meaningful gift?

In another case, Mr. S. has been confined to a sanitarium due to illness and his wife is left alone to provide Christmas for the four children.

More than toys, the youngsters need food and warm clothing to see them through the bitter winter. Janice, 11, born on Christmas Day, wears size 12 clothing.

Charles, 9, and Clifford, 7, wear sizes 10 and 8, respectively, and four-year-old Kenneth takes size five in clothing.

If some Santa could be thoughtful enough to give the gift of toys, too, the S. youngsters, cheered by this remembrance, would be less unhappy that their father can not spend Christmas with them.

Permit Renewal Due

Rubbish haulers working in Marion were warned today that they must renew their city permits by Dec. 31. The permits are for hauling rubbish only. Under a city ordinance, only the city sanitation department is permitted to transport garbage over city streets.

Arrested on Warrant

A 41-year-old Marion man was arrested Saturday by city police on a warrant charging him with issuance of a worthless check for $50. The warrant was signed by Morgan Burke, manager of Uhler's store. The case was scheduled to be heard in Municipal Court later.

Bergman

In 1949, at the peak of her American movie career, the actress went to Italy to make "Stromboli" for Rossellini. Their romance developed and she obtained a proxy divorce from Lindstrom Feb. 9, 1950, seven days after the birth of Robertino, her son by Rossellini.

Miss Bergman and Rossellini were married three months later.

Rossellini asked for annullment of the marriage a year ago. Miss Bergman did not contest the suit.

Appelbe gave this interpretation of the legal points involved in Miss Bergman's marital history:

The Mexican divorce she got from Lindstrom was invalid. Consequently her Mexican marriage to Rossellini was null and void. But the California divorce Lindstrom got in 1951 was valid and this entitled her to marry.

Yule Party Held By Shovel Firm

Some 1,400 children and adults attended the annual Marion Power Shovel Co. Christmas party Saturday in the Palace Theater. Company officials said it was one of the largest parties held by the firm in recent years.

Christmas music was played by John Kessler at the organ and Santa Claus led the children in a round of Christmas songs and distributed gifts. Santa also staged an impromptu amateur show with a number of children taking part. Cartoons and comedy films completed the two-hour program.

Members of the committee which arranged the party were: Richard Myers, chairman; James Creager, Ray Lash, Mrs. Betty Slemmons, Miss Dorothy Rhinehart, Patrick Gilmore, Howard Lehner, Robert Lashey, Keith Butler, Edward Marinik, Robert Lowry, Harold Tobin, Blair Watkins, Orville Decker, Irving (Peck) Dutt, Lloyd Smith, Elmer Smith, Mrs. Jackie Crawford, Mrs. Nancy Rizzo, Mrs. Jean Parker, Mrs. Dorothy Chance and Miss Linda McMahon.

Carey Native, Two Children Die of Fumes

CAREY — A woman, who with her two children died of carbon monoxide fumes at their home in Monroeville Friday night, was a native of Carey and was raised here.

She was Mrs. Sarah Swartz, 23, wife of James M. Swartz. She and her two children, Sarah Ann, 3, and James M. Jr., 14 months, were found dead by Mr. Swartz when he returned home from work early Saturday morning.

Authorities in Monroeville said the three had been dead since about 8 o'clock Friday night.

Mrs. Swartz was born on Nov. 27, 1935, in Carey to William and Geneva Nutter Dill, both of whom survive and still reside here. She was graduated in 1954 from Carey High School and on Nov. 12 of that year married James M. Swartz.

Surviving with Mr. Swartz and her parents are four sisters and three brothers, Mrs. Edward Borth of Upper Sandusky, Mrs. Herbert Prater, Kenneth Dill and William Dill Jr., all of Carey, and Ruth, Jane and Charles Dill, all at the parents home in Carey. Also surviving is a grandfather, William Nutter Sr. of Upper Sandusky.

Triple funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Drake Funeral Home in Monroeville and burial will be in the York Street Chapel Cemetery west of Bellevue.

Son Held in Fatal Shooting of Father In Shaker Heights

CLEVELAND (AP)—A former mental hospital patient was called into Shaker Heights Municipal Court today for arraignment in the fatal shooting of his father, whom he blamed for a "nervous condition."

After he walked into central police station Saturday night and reported the killing, Norman Hills, 25, told detectives he had wanted to kill his father, Clifford J. Hills, 61, for four years.

Young Hills' mother was at her daughter's house baby - sitting when the son pulled a pistol from his pocket and fired three shots at his father, police said. The two men had been watching television together in the living room.

Records at Hawthornden State Hospital here showed Norman escaped from there in the spring of 1952 after a year as a patient and that his father would not agree to a hospital request he be sent back. Hills' case history at Hawthornden showed he suffered from delusions of persecution.

Traffic Cases

Five traffic cases were disposed of in Marion Municipal Court Friday. They were:

E. W. Fox, 48, of 391 E. Church St., $15 and costs (suspended), speeding; George Napier, 38, of Mooresville, Ind., $15 and costs, no mud flaps; B. W. Tallman, 33, of 519 Tyler St., $15 and costs (suspended), no registration; James V. Jackson, 35, of Canton, forfeited $50 bond, defective muffler; Terrence F. Urban, 19, of Lorain, $15 and costs (suspended), reckless driving.

Marion Area Auto Mishaps

Two persons were injured in two of eight traffic accidents investigated over the weekend by city police.

Hurt when her car was struck from the rear at S. Prospect and Superior streets at 12:10 p.m. Saturday was Minnie F. Stithem, 60, of Richwood. She suffered neck and shoulder injuries and was taken to a physician's office for treatment. Police said her car was struck by one driven by Okey R. Ripley, 34, of Greenlea Dr. His car slid on the ice as he attempted to stop, according to the police report. Both cars were northbound on S. Prospect St.

John P. Woodcock, 64, of 508 Blaine Ave. suffered a cut over the right eye when his car struck a parked car at Bellefontaine Ave. at Windsor St. at 11:23 p.m. Saturday. He was taken to Marion General Hospital for treatment. He told police he did not see the parked car. The impact pushed the parked car over the curb, across the sidewalk and into the yard of Nick Hondros of 545 Windsor St. who also owned the parked car, police said.

A car driven by Edward S. Burton, 74, of New London was struck from the rear at N. Main and Hazen streets at 9:27 a.m. Saturday. The other car was driven by Howard F. Spencer, 38, of 775 Gill Ave.

A car driven by Mrs. William Greenhill, 27, of 650 Fair Park Ave. was struck from the rear at N. Greenwood and E. Center streets at 11:17 a.m. Saturday. Driver of the other car was Annabelle Bradley, 30, of 759 Fair Park Ave., police said.

A collision at Silver and Oak streets at 12:05 a.m. Sunday involved cars driven by Norman L. Orr, 33, of near Marion and Ray Tennant, 65, of Mount Gilead. The impact sent Tennant's car spinning around over the curb on the southeast corner. It knocked down a street sign and came to rest on the sidewalk on the south side of Silver St.

Each of the other two accidents in the city caused less than $100 damage, police estimated.

3 Vehicles Damaged

Two cars and a trailer-tractor combination were considerably damaged in the single weekend county accident reported today by Marion post patrolmen.

The mishap occurred on Rt. 95 one-half mile east of Marion at 3:45 p.m. Sunday.

Patrolmen said cars involved were driven by John R. Blankenship Jr., 19, of 553 N. Main St. who was eastbound on Rt. 95, and Ruth I. Beck, 38, of near Wharton, who had stopped in a private drive at the Marion County Home.

An eastbound trailer-tractor combination driven by Horace McSlenathan, 36, of Cardington attempted to pass the Blankenship auto as the latter vehicle was starting a left turn into the home drive.

According to the report, the truck swerved to avoid a collision and struck the Beck auto in the driveway. The lawn of the Marion County Home was damaged, officers noted. No one was injured.

Faces Driving Charge

Isaac Dever Redmon of 566 Emerson Ave. was arrested Saturday by the state highway patrol on Rt. 4. He was charged with driving while intoxicated and was scheduled to appear in Muncipal Court today.

U.S. Gives Tito $95 Million in Economic Aid

BELGRADE (AP)—The United States today signed an agreement with Yugoslavia granting this Communist country nearly 95 million dollars U.S. economic aid.

The agreement was signed by U. S. Ambassador Karl Rankin and Dep. Foreign Minister Bogdan Crnobrnja.

The United States during fiscal year 1958-59 will deliver about 900,000 tons of wheat, 27,000 tons of cotton, 30,000 tons of edible oil and 10,000 tons of beans from agricultural surpluses.

Yugoslavia will pay in dinars, the local currency, into a counterpart fund. About 69 million dollars of the fund will be made available to Yugoslavia as a 30-year loan for development of industry, mining, transport and agriculture.

Yugoslavia receives as a gift about 14 million dollars of local currency for development of health, education and agriculture, while the counterpart in dinars of 11 million dollars will be used by the U.S. government for its needs in Yugoslavia.

The newest assistance will bring to about 900 million dollars the American economic aid to Yugoslavia since 1950. The aid is aimed at helping President Tito in pursuing a course independent from Moscow.

Yugoslavia also obtained considerable military aid, estimated to total about 700 million dollars since 1950. Yugoslavia stopped the military aid last year.

It is expected here that another agreement on a long-range credit to Yugoslavia to help her development program will be signed soon in Washington. The program was badly endangered by the cancellation of a 280-million-dollar credit by the Soviet Union last spring.

Five Persons Hurt in Carey Auto Accident

CAREY — A Carey youth involved in an accident which caused injury to five persons including himself will face charges of reckless operation in Carey police court when he is released from Blanchard Valley Hospital in Findlay.

Cited in the three-car accident was Ronald E. Stone, 19, of Carey. He is in serious condition in the hospital where he is being treated for left arm and head injuries.

Also injured were Mrs. Margaret Walton, 32, of Carey, driver of one of the other cars, who suffered cuts and bruises; Linda Boyce, 2½, of Carey who had fractures of both legs; Mrs. Charles Boyce, Linda's mother, who had cuts and bruises, and Mrs. David Yingling, of Carey, who had cuts and bruises of the head and knees. All were in Mrs. Walton's car.

Stone and Linda Boyce were admitted to the hospital. The others were treated by a physician and released.

The accident happened at 10 p.m. Friday. Stone was going west on W. Findlay St. and was rounding a curve and skidded into the path of the car driven by Mrs. Walton, police said. A parked car, owned by Joyce Ann Savidge of Carey, was damaged when hit by the Stone car. The Walton car was demolished and considerable damage done to the Stone car.

Officers Paul F. Pahl and John Orians of the Carey Police Department investigated the accident.

George Mundy ,36, of near Carey will face charges in Carey police court of driving while intoxicated, leaving the scene of an accident and driving without a license. The charges stemmed from an accident at 2:15 p.m. Sunday when Mundy turned off of Glenn Ave. onto W. South St. in Carey and hit a utility pole, police reported. The car was demolished and about $200 damage was reported to property owned by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Capt. Vincent Jacobs of the Carey police investigated the accident. Mundy is being held in jail pending his hearing.

Woman Is Injured In Morrow Crash

A Pataskala woman was admitted to Morrow County Hospital for treatment of back injuries after a collision at the intersection of Routes 42 and 61 just south of Mount Gilead Saturday.

Investigating patrolmen of the Marion post identified the injured woman as Mabel Rolen, 67. She was a passenger in an auto driven by Carl R. Rolen, 61, of Pataskala, which was northbound on Rt. 61.

According to the report, a car behind Rolen's driven by Peter Rzepka, 30, of Cleveland, slammed into the rear end of the Rolen car at the intersection. Both vehicles were considerably damaged.

Officers said Rolen was fined $20 and costs on a charge of failure to have a license, and Rzepka was fined $15 and costs on a charge of failure to transfer registration. Both drivers appeared in Mount Gilead Mayor's Court.

The mishap occurred just south of Mount Gilead at 1:50 p.m. Saturday.

Blaze Is Fatal To 6 Children

Trapped as Fire Hits Home in Wisconsin

KAUKAUNA, Wis. (AP) — Six children sought refuge in a bathroom of their flaming home Sunday and died of burns and suffocation. Safety was only a few feet away through a kitchen door.

Firemen recovered the bodies of Lynn, 7; Douglas, 6; Margaret, 5; John, 3; Barbara, 2½, and Michael, 1½, children of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Weyneberg.

The parents were attending an early mass four blocks away when the fire broke out, apparently in the living room.

Weyneberg broke from fire fighters and climbed a ladder to a second-story bedroom window in an effort to find the children.

The couple have no other children. Two infant twins died of natural causes earlier this year.

Firemen found Douglas, who apparently had attempted to flee the bathroom, at the door of the stairs. He died of burns. The others, found in the bathroom, suffocated.

4 Die, 12 Hurt as Bus, Auto Collide in Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — The flaming crash of a Chicago Transit Authority bus and a car Sunday night killed four occupants of the auto. Twelve other persons, including 11 bus passengers, were injured.

Flames erupted from under the bus after the smashup and panicked passengers bolted for exit doors, crawling over seats.

Three of the 11 injured bus riders required hospitalization.

Police Capt. James P. Hackett said the car apparently skidded through a stop sign.

In and About Our Schools

Although most city and county schools have already closed their doors for the Christmas holiday, news concerning occurrences in the final days before dismissal and announcements of activities for the week of Jan. 5, in which classes resume, are listed below.

—Harding—

Clothing has been purchased for a needy family by the Harding Shoshonean Club.

A Christmas tree for the Salvation Army was decorated by members of the Prop's and Q's Club. The student council donated a gift to the Army toward helping provide for the needy.

Richard Devine of Whirlpool Corp. discussed "Industrial Engineering" during a meeting of Future Engineers Thursday.

Barry Brandt and Wally White presented a skit during the Prop's and Q's Christmas party Thursday in the speech room. Pat Brown played Christmas carols on the piano and refreshments were served.

Working on the committee to plan the Christmas party for home economic students last week were Carol Beckel, Roxy Jenkins, Marilyn Wright, Janet Solomon, Bonni Jackson, Barbara Miller, Nancy Stock, Sherry Moore, and Nettie Mason.

The newly-formed Pep Club made its first appearance Friday night at the Harding - Findlay game. The group consists of 136 students from the three grades. It is under the direction of Miss Marian Hendricks.

New yells and stunts are planned by the executive committee within the club. Members of the executive group are Jill Howser, Susan Rohr, Linda McCurdy, Lynn Greetham, Susan Eicher and Judy Shelton.

The 42 senior girls in the Pep Club form the "H" for Harding. They wear red while the other girls are dressed in completely black outfits.

—Edison—

Plans for the annual sales tax stamp drive at Edison will be made when the student council meets Monday Jan. 6. Proceeds will finance school assemblies and other special activities.

The Stardusters, Harding dance band, will present Friday's assembly, Jan. 9. Musical selections and variety acts will be featured.

On Tuesday, Jan. 6, Edison will clash with Marion Catholic in a 3:45 p.m. game. Taft will come to Edison for a 3:35 p.m. game Thursday of that week.

—Taft—

Cecil Gabler, assistant to the superintendent of city public schools, will speak to Taft students on the subject Curriculum" Tuesday morning, Jan. 6.

The basketball team will go to Ridgedale Tuesday, Jan. 6, at 4 p.m. for a cage game. On Thursday, Jan. 8, the team will play at Edison, beginning at 3:35 p.m.

—Baker—

The Harding High School Stardusters will present the assembly program Wednesday, Jan. 7, at Baker under the direction of George Lane.

The Baker basketball squad will clash with Prospect junior high team members Thursday, Jan. 8 at 4 p.m. on the Prospect court.

Slides taken in the Philippine Islands were shown to Mrs. Mildred Lytle's seventh grade geography class last week by Patricia Vogt. Miss Vogt's father took the pictures while he was in the armed forces.

—St. Mary—

Youngsters in both second grades at St. Mary made Christmas cards for their parents last week. Those in Grade 2-A also presented a play entitled "The First Christmas Rose."

Brownie Scout members in Grade 4-A will visit the Marion County Home for the Aged this week to sing carols.

Boys in Grade 6-B have started publication of a newspaper entitled "The Marion Times." Dan Moloney is the editor and Mike Robbins, Peter Hanen and Joe Walker are reporters.

Seventh graders entertained students in the lower grades with Christmas carols and a revised version of "The Night Before Christmas" last week. A short Christmas play also was presented.

—Silver St.—

Mrs. Catherine Brown's first grade has made Christmas booklets at Silver St, during the last three weeks. Students listened to stories, acted out skits, wrote original stories and put them in booklets. They also put pictures of Christmas trees, mangers, the Wise Men, and shepherds in the booklets. Then they tied them with Christmas ribbon.

Mrs. Grace Keiser's second grade has made a Chistmas mural on wrapping paper drawn with crayons. This was placed in the hall. As a result they learned the origin of Christmas.

Each child drew a part of the mural. Some of the items in the mural are Bethlehem scenes, a Christmas tree, wreaths, canes, candles, bells, Santa Claus and reindeer.

Mrs. Jane McAnaney's third grade made gifts and decorations for Christmas. They decorated a tree in their room with snow flakes and angels.

They also made sewing boxes for their mothers and pencil boxes for their fathers. They designed cards and wrapping paper for the gifts. The room was decorated with manger scenes and Santa Clauses made by the children.

Mrs. Alma Maddox' third grade made Christmas sweets last week. The recipe was for brown butter rolls. The original recipe had to be enlarged and the children put their arithmetic knowledge into use.

They also had to figure the cost of ingredients. The grocery list was made out and some of the children went to the nearest store and did the shopping. The mixing directions were read and then the mixing of ingredients was started. After the sweets had been made and sampled, the recipe was copied by each child.

Pupils in Mrs. Laura Carter's second grade have been studying the Christmas story and have learned Christmas carols and songs in keeping with the Yuletide season. In art classes pictures were drawn of the Bethlehem scene and Christmas greeting cards made.

Pupils throughout the school enjoyed two movies and the annual Christmas play in the school auditorium last week. The movies entitled "The Littlest Angel" and "The Christmas Story," and the play, "The Story of Christmas" helped to give an understanding of why we celebrate Christmas.

The play was given for the student body on Tuesday afternoon by fourth and fifth grades under the direction of their teachers, Mrs. Evelyn Anderson, Mrs. Pauline Hedding, Mrs. Esther Hudnall, Mrs. Grace McGill, and Mrs. Bernice Yoh. The annual Christmas treat was distributed to students by PTA members Friday afternoon.

—Caledonia—

The freshman home economics class at Caledonia has baked Christmas cookies which will be distributed to the Marion County Children's Home before the holiday. Sophomores in home economics made cookies for delivery to the County Home for the Aged.

Pleasant, Prospect and Green Camp FFA boys copped first place in the county parliamentary procedure contest held Wednesay at the school under FFA sponsorship. Second place or silver ratings went to Caledonia and Ridgedale, and third highest or bronze designations to LaRue and Claridon.

Seniors have decided to take a six-day class trip in May to New York City and Washington, D.C., if sufficient funds can be raised to finance the journey.

Before school dismissed Friday for vacation, seventh and ninth grade students held Christmas parties in the music room.

The new sound system was installed last week and put into use with Christmas carols resounding through the hallways and rooms each morning and during the lunch hour.

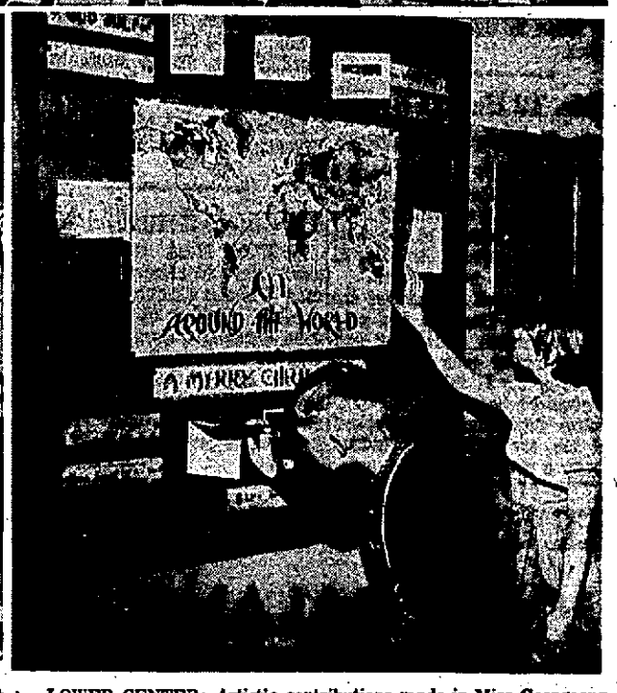
Settlement Is Reached In $25,000 Suit Here

Common Pleas Court officials said today that out-of-court settlement has been reached in a $25,000 damage suit filed last March against the Erie Railroad by a Maggard, Ky., man.

Plaintiff in the action was Ponny Mann, who alleged he suffered a 25 per cent loss of vision from a left eye injury suffered while he was riding in an Erie caboose on Aug. 27, 1956. Terms of the settlement were not disclosed.

The law firm of Mickley, Frericks and Howard represented the plaintiff. The railroad was represented by Edwin L. Mitchell of the Strelitz, Halberstein and Mitchell law firm.

Colorful Yule Decorations Brighten Schools in Marion



HOLIDAY DECOR spelled out the Yuletide season in every city school last week as students made last-minute preparations for the holiday. Their artistic contributions included murals, door decorations, table centerpieces, cards, Santa Clauses, snowmen, tree ornaments and manger scenes.

UPPER LEFT: Putting the finishing touches on a manger scene and Bethlehem mural in their St. Mary School classroom are students in Sister Frances Adelaide's seventh grade. Kneeling (left to right) are: Maureen Moloney, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moloney of 387 N. Prospect St. and Larry Brown, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Brown of 278 Merchant Ave. Standing (left and right) are Marsha Hirneise, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hirneise of 380 Park St., and Sharon Masters, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Masters of 647 Universal Ave.

UPPER RIGHT: Shepherds bring gifts and praises for the Christ Child at his manger in this large backdrop painted by art students at Harding. It was used as a background for the choral concert given during Friday's assembly. Plying brushes here are Kae Harper, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harper of 443 S. Main St.; Lon Fout, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Fout of 395 E. Fairground St.; Marianne Magi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gaetano Magi of 627 Hermann St., and Doug Patrick, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patrick of 407 S. Main St.

LOWER LEFT: Mrs. Mary Conyers, teacher of the special class at Taft, admires the centerpieces and front door decorations her students made as gifts for their parents. The youngsters also wove baskets, painting designs in the bottom of them. The items were on display in the main showcase.

LOWER CENTER: Artistic contributions made in Miss Georgeann Zuck's sixth grade at Pearl St. are proudly shown to the teacher by three students. Pictured (left to right) are: Nancy Hoehner, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hoehner of 555 Pearl St.; Meri Lynn McIntire, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren McIntire of 262 Marion Ave. and Steven Brownstein, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Brownstein of 606 Cleveland Ave.

LOWER RIGHT: Christmas in other lands is illustrated in these Christmas greeting cards which appear on a colorful bulletin board at George Washington School. Even the foreign terms for saying "Merry Christmas" are listed here. Two fifth grade youngsters examine the cards with interest. They are Bruce Burns, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burns of 239 Johnson St., and Christine Butler, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Butler of 207 Chicago Ave.

Vacation Starts Tuesday For Ridgedale Students

Ridgedale District students will begin their Christmas vacation Tuesday afternoon with early dismissal, school officials reported today.

The high school will close at 2 p.m. and the three elementary buildings at 1:30 p.m.

All city and county schools except the Martel School will remain closed until Jan. 5.

Martel students will convene for regular class schedules Monday, Dec. 29, through Wednesday, Dec. 31. Students there will have a vacation New Year's Day, returning to their studies Friday, Jan. 2. School officials say the holiday was cut short so classes may dismiss earlier in May for the summer vacation.

No Cornerstone

HOUSTON (AP) — Ceremonies marking the placing of the cornerstone of the new one-million-dollar First Christian church were held up momentarily. Dr. John C. Knowles, pastor, said someone forgot to bring the cornerstone.

Teachers, FFA Groups Will Aid Needy Families

More than 100 articles of used toys and clothing will be delivered before Christmas to needy families in Green Camp and New Bloomington, thanks to the combined efforts of FFA members and teachers.

The idea to help others originated with Green Camp faculty members who decided to give to a needy family, rather than exchange Christmas gifts among themselves.

Since toys and similar gifts for children were in great demand, the group decided to collect these items and distribute them to indigent homes.

School officials report the FFA stepped in and volunteered to repair and paint any toys needing it. The project was completed last week in the agriculture department with New Bloomington FFA members cooperating in the effort.

The children's gifts are to be delivered in both communities by faculties of the two schools. Although clothing was not requested, generous donors made it possible to distribute coats, sweaters and other items of warm clothing.

School Music Groups Will Be Heard on Radio

Five tape recorded Christmas music programs, featuring students from Marion public schools, will be heard on the "Schools Visit You" program over WMRN beginning daily Dec. 29 at 6:45 p.m.

The schedule is: Monday, Dec. 29, Taft Junior High School Choir; Tuesday, Dec. 30, Oakland School; Wednesday, Dec. 31, Vernon School; Thursday, Jan. 1, Baker Junior High School Choir, and Friday, Jan. 2, George Washington School.

Annual New Year's Day Auction Set at Claridon

Furniture and farm equipment will be sold when the senior class at Claridon School holds a New Year's Day auction at the school beginning at 10 a.m. on Jan. 1.

Presiding at the auction block will be L. M. Wickersham of Claridon and Gene Slagle of Marion. Items donated and consigned on a commission basis will be sold. Roy Beers is chairman of the sale and committee members are Fred Loyer and Vernon Gruber.

This marks the 15th successive year that a Claridon School organization has sponsored the sale at the building. Proceeds this year will go toward defraying costs of the senior trip.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — Oils were jolted by news Venezuela is boosting tax and royalty payments of oil companies operating there. The stock market was moderately lower in active trading early this afternoon.

Gains and losses of leading issues went from fractions to about two points as prices slipped irregularly.

Oil shares backed away on the Venezuela tax increase on oil revenues to 60 per cent from 50. Creole Petroleum, subsidiary of Standard Oil (New Jersey), is most deeply involved in Venezuela and fell more than two points on the American Stock Exchange. Jersey Standard dropped more than a point.

Royal Dutch and Gulf Oil fell more than a point each. Continental Oil, a domestic producer, jumped more than a point.

An increase in yearend tax transactions brought considerable selling and switching, brokers said. At the same time, advisory service recommendations brought demand to selected issues.

Polaroid was off more than four and Zenith advanced about five.

American Telephone dropped two points and U.S. Steel was off about two.

Rheem was ahead about two. General Dynamics rose more than a point. Goodrich added about two.

Losses of around a point or more were taken by Lorillard, Raytheon, Douglas Aircraft, Anaconda, Kennecott, American Cyanamid and Westinghouse Electric.

U.S. government bonds continued a downside trend.

American Influence on Ballet Cited by Noted Choreographer

NEW YORK (AP)—When Degas was turning out his oil masterpieces, the ballerina was short, chunky, shortnecked and hollow-backed.

Many ballerinas, almost literally sold by poor parents into Europe's ballet companies, had no education — could neither read nor write. And the pay was so meager that sometimes a pretty young dancer found ways of supplementing her income. This, unfortunately, gave ballerinas racy reputations.

Today's ballerinas, however, are tall, streamlined, and not only well-trained in their specialty but highly literate and cultivated. In addition, the pay is good, with the result that a modern coryphee can devote herself wholeheartedly to her dancing career. The result is that ballerinas' reputations have been patched up.

Americans Well-Trained

"It is the influence of America," Birgit Cullberg, Swedish choreographer who has composed and directed some of the most interesting and popular of the modern ballets. "Since America has become interested in ballet, it has been turning out especially well - trained dancers. You have a very good system for training dancers for all sorts of movement."

This country, Miss Cullberg says, has been leading the world in the development of ballet, and is most interested in choreography — composing new dances.

"And there is now an American style," she said, "based on the classical ballet of Europe but developed through contact with the modern dance, of Martha Graham and Hanya Holm and others."

To date, no satisfactory method for writing down a ballet has been developed. It is kept alive — if it is to live — by being passed along from dancer to dancer. One famous ballet, Giselle, was first composed over 100 years ago and is still being performed.

"There is the Laban notation method," said Miss Cullberg, "but it is such a complicated thing that a choreographer must spend almost a lifetime learning to use it — and there is no time left for the ballet itself.

Ballet developed its classical form as court dancing. In another era, ballets were devised around music already written by one or another famed composer. Today, however, most choreographers decide on a story line, work out steps and then order special music composed for the dance.

Miss Cullberg, on her first visit to the United States, spent much of her time rehearsing dancers of the American Ballet Theatre in her dances, notably "Miss Julie," which she adapted from a work by Strindberg. She is the wife of a Swedish actor, Anders Ek, and they have three children. She came to dancing late — at 25, which is practically old age in the ballet world — studied in Europe and directed herself always toward choreography rather than performing. At 50 she still takes dancing lessons.

"Writers, musicians, painters — they can work a long time and their work makes a few physical demands," she said. "The choreographer must be able to demonstrate everything."

When composing a ballet, Miss Cullberg locks herself up with a tape recorder and works out the dance. Then, later, she must show others how to dance it.

"It is the only way," she said, a little sadly. "In this work, you can get old, you can even get fat. But you can't sit down."

McDonald Opponent Cleared Of Charge of Dual Unionism

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Fellow union members have exonerated Donald C. Rarick of charges he promoted dual unionism within the United Steelworkers Union as leader of a rank and file protest movement against increased dues.

The 39-year-old Rarick, a heat treater at the nearby Irvin works of U.S. Steel Corp., was cleared Sunday at a membership meeting of USW Local 2227. He is president of the 3,500-member local.

Members voted 97-7 in favor of a recommendation by a five-man trial board that the charges be dropped. The panel heard accusations against Rarick Dec. 1 and 2.

Rarick is chairman of the so-called dues protest committee. It was formed by union members in 1956 in protest against an increase in dues from $3 to $5 a month.

The dual unionism charges, brought originally by 11 members of Local 2227, claimed Rarick worked against the best interests of the USW in an organized effort to oppose the will of the union membership. He was accused of attempting to set up another union within the framework of the USW.

Traffic Crashes Claim 16

Ohio's Accidental Death Toll for Weekend Is 26

By The Associated Press

The week of the long Christmas holiday is off to an ominous start.

Twenty-six people died accidentally in Ohio during the weekend just past. Sixteen died in traffic, five in fires and five others from miscellaneous causes.

Another death, that of Anthony J. Sharr, 58, of Orange Village in the Cleveland area, is still under coroner's investigation. He died Friday night, less than an hour after his car skidded into a tree on Woodbury Road in Shaker Heights. Police say he may have suffered a heart attack.

The increase in fatalities over the average of recent weeks seems to bear out a prediction by the Ohio Highway Patrol that 200 people could die in traffic alone during the two-week holiday period. About 130 died during the period last year.

The fatalities:

Friday Night

Louis Hansen, 51, Kent's service director, and his wife, Virginia, 48, in the collision of their car with a tractor-trailer truck on Ohio 14 southeast of Ravenna.

Joanne Dixon, 3, and her brothers, Teddy, 2, and Casey, 1, when a fire swept their family apartment in Cincinnati.

Ronald Knier, 20, Newton, Wis., and Peter K. Riley, 25, Spokane, Wash., both college students, when Knier's car skidded off the Ohio Turnpike six miles west of the Elyria interchange and pinned Riley against a tow truck that was pulling his stalled car from the shoulder of the road.

Dorothy Seevers, 42, Ava (Noble County), in a four-car collision on U.S. 21 in Guernsey County.

Saturday

Gary J. Swick, 26, Milwaukee, third victim of the Friday night Turnpike accident, died of injuries suffered when pinned against the truck with Riley.

Joseph Remesnicek, 63, Cleveland, struck by a bakery truck as he crossed a city street.

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Swartz, 23; her daughter, Sarah Ann, whose third birthday was Saturday, and her son, James Jr., 14 months, of carbon monoxide poisoning from an opening in the piping of the heater in their apartment at Monroeville (Huron County).

Auto Hit by Train

John Bushong, 17, Vermilion Lagoons (Erie County), and Onyx Falls, 15, Vermilion, when their car was hit by a passenger train at a crossing on Ohio 60.

Mrs. William Deitrick, 74, Ridgeville Twp. (Lorain County), in a collision at the U.S. 20-Ohio 76 intersection.

Crawford Eating Places Told To Obtain Licenses

BUCYRUS — Crawford County restaurant owners and others who sell food for consumption on the premises were reminded today by D. G. Stricklin, county sanitarian, that the deadline for obtaining 1959 Ohio food service operation license will be Jan. 1.

Mr. Stricklin said the 1959 license must be displayed in a conspicuous place in all establishments serving food on Jan. 1 or the first day the establishment is open for business in the new year.

Application forms for the license were mailed to all food handlers in the county, Dec. 1, according to Stricklin.

Two Lives of Marcel Proust Found Similar in Biography

By W. G. ROGERS
Associated Press Book Critic

MARCEL PROUST: A BIOGRAPHY. By Richard H. Barker. Criterion. $6.50.

Proust's life was bounded by two of his country's wars: He was born just after the defeat of 1870, and died in 1922 just after the victory of World War I. In between there were the incredible Proustian paradoxes: The snobbish young man who produced a devastating dissection of snobbery, the fantastically effeminate youth who gave every promise of never amounting to anything more than the travesty of a man, the sickly inant and terribly ailing adult who nevertheless had the incalculable strength to create one of the longest and best novels of this century.

Americans know it as "Remembrance of Things Past," a title which offended Proust. And in a certain sense they are rereading it when they read this biography. As Barker reminds us. Proust thought a novelist had two lives, as a novelist and as a member of society. There are differences in the two but they also are "strikingly similar."

It is the similarities that impress me — the way everything he did was grist to his mill, his friends and foes become his characters, the parties they invited him to were the parties he invites us to read about, the way in effect he redoes his life, his Paris and his vanishing age in his novel.

There are some eccentrics besides Proust in these pages, and Barker pictures them vividly. But the chief one, of course, is the novelist himself, his dependence on his mother, his asthma and headaches and earaches and fevers and colds and speech impediment, his desperate or ridiculous remedies or preventives, like the cork-lined room, his abnormal nighttime life, his manner with friends, his thwarted and often misdirected loves, and the ultimate struggle, with Death breathing down his neck, to write his epochal novel, get it published and accepted.

Barker thinks Proust's idea of the involuntary memory has been overplayed — it would seem to me not to be of much stature as a theory but, however, a most remarkable bit of fiction and a most memorable insight in the famous episode of the madeleine dipped in tea. The notion of the role of Time came late to Proust, this biographer thinks. But he spares no superlatives in his praise of "Remembrance" itself.

Leads Police to Woman's Grave

Migrant Worker Admits Slaying on West Coast

VENTURA, Calif. (AP)—Police fitted in the pieces today of a plot they said led to the brutal killing of attractive Olga Duncan, whose bruised body was found in a shallow grave beside a lonely road.

An itinerant laborer, with a local police record, climaxed his tale of what he said was a hired slaying by leading officers Sunday to her hand-scooped grave.

Augustine Baldonado, 25, said in a statement that the dead woman's mother-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan, 54, hired him and Luis Moya, 22, to kill five-months-pregnant Olga Duncan, 30, for $6,000.

Possibly Buried Alive

Investigators said the victim may have been buried alive. They quoted Baldonado: "I don't know. We strangled her, and I think we killed her before we put her in the ground."

The victim, a surgical nurse, had been missing since Nov. 18. She was the estranged wife of Santa Barbara lawyer Frank Duncan. They separated only two weeks after their marriage last June.

Dist. Atty. Roy Gustafson said jealousy of the older woman was the major motive.

Less than four months before her death, the dead woman had written her mother, Mrs. Jessie Kupczyk of Benito, Manitoba, that Mrs. Duncan held "an uncanny hold" over her son. She said she planned an annulment.

"Don't dwell on my troubles," Olga Duncan wrote. "Life is short, and I want to enjoy the rest of it."

Denies Part in Slaying

Moya, who has denied knowledge of the slaying, was described by Santa Barbara Sheriff John Ross as badly shaken upon learning of Baldonado's statement.

Mrs. Duncan, too, has insisted she knows nothing of her daughter-in-law's disappearance.

Police say Mrs. Duncan has been married five times in eight years. She is charged with posing in court here as her son's wife, along with a paid confederate, to obtain a fraudulent annulment of her son's marriage last August. It was the discovery of the spurious annulment, authorities say, that caused them to begin an intensive search for the missing daughter-in-law.

Charges are on file at Santa Barbara accusing Mrs. Duncan, Moya and Baldonado of conspiring to kidnap and murder Olga Duncan. They are held in lieu of $100,000 bail apiece.

Police, led by Baldonado, found the body of the nurse, clothed only in a nylon bathrobe, buried at the bottom of a 20-foot embankment on Casitas Pass, 19 miles northwest of Ventura.

Gustafson quoted Baldonado as saying he and Moya took turns holding the struggling woman while the other dug the 16-inch-deep grave.

Instructions on Package

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — The mailer of a Christmas package wanted to be sure the gift he was sending didn't get wet.

Post office workers spotted this note on the outside of a package: "Postmaster: Please do not douse this package in water if ticking sounds are heard. Inside is a toy robot which may go into operation if the box is squeezed."

Cunningham Addresses County Social Workers

The history and program of the Marion County Crippled Children's Society were outlined by Robert Cunningham, president, when he addressed a meeting of the County Social Workers Association held at the YMCA Tuesday.

He cited the society's services as research, care, treatment and providing of equipment for victims of polio, epilepsy, muscular dystrophy and other crippling diseases.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Doris Maxwell, executive secretary of the Family Service Society. She was presented by Maj. James Hall, commander of the local Salvation Army citadel and program chairman.

During the business session a contribution was approved for the Marion County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

$10,000 Note Not Often Seen

'Chase Bill' Making Its Seasonal Reappearance

WASHINGTON (NANA) — Those portraits of Salmon P. Chase are beginning to get around again.

You don't have to know much about Chase to appreciate the value of his likeness: it stares reflectively from the largest denomination of any United States currency, a $10,000 bill.

Each year about this time, the number of such bills in circulation — never very large — jumps. At the end of October there were just 340 of the bills among some $31,389,000,000 in currency making the rounds of the American people. By Christmas, the number of $10,000 bills out where the regular money-changers can see them will get to about 1,300.

It happens each holiday season.

THE DIVISION of bank operations of the Federal Reserve System is not sure just why the big bills make the seasonal jump.

The most warm-hearted theory is that there are still enough individuals in this country sufficiently rich and sufficiently generous to give $10,000 bills as Christmas presents. The recipient normally would be expected to fondle the crisp bill for a short time and then change it for suitable pocket money. That fits the figures, because the number of Chase images in circulation goes back down to normal shortly after Christmas.

Another theory is that some of the "old-fashioned" banks around the country like to have $10,000 bills as "vault cash" at year end. That's when reports of the bank's condition are made and the cash looks good in the columns.

After the bill has done its duty, either as a present or as bank "window dressing," it moves out of commercial banks and into hibernation in the vaults of the Federal Reserve System until Santa approaches again.

THE $10,000 treasury note, in case you never get to see one, is a simple thing. On one side is the portrait of Chase. On the other, there is no picture, no majestic design — just a green border around the impressive five-digit figure. It costs the Bureau of Engraving and Printing about one cent to print it, the same as the cost of a common $5 bill, but replacements are no problem. Said one official:

"People handle $10,000 bills with care."

Chase, the face on the bill, was born in New Hampshire in 1808. He became governor of Ohio, Secretary of the Treasury under President Lincoln and Chief Justice of the United States. His first fee as a lawyer was 50 cents, and the client came back to borrow it a few days later.

As you might expect, the $10,000 notes are not the only bills that get a workout during the Christmas season. Money in circulation generally reaches a peak at the holiday season. Last December, the peak amounted to $31,719,000,000. A Federal Reserve official says:

"There is every indication it will go over $32,000,000,000 by the end of this year."

Fight Develops

SEOUL (AP) — Fighting broke out in the South Korean National Assembly today when guards tried to remove bedding of opposition Democrats who were staging a sitdown strike.

One Democrat was seriously hurt in the 10-minute fight which smashed furniture and overturned the speaker's rostrum. He was hospitalized.

The sitdown began Friday in protest to a bill by President Syngman Rhee's Liberals to amend the National Security Law.

The Liberals say the changes are needed to deal with increased communist espionage. The Democrats contend the changes would curtail press freedom and human rights.

Seasonal Crime Noted By Company Watchman

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — A night watchman at the Upton Produce Company here reported to police that a thief broke into the warehouse and took a shotgun, a pair of hunting boots and a hunting coat. It was the night before the opening of the duck season.

DOUBLE BIRTHDAY

DEFIANCE, Ohio (AP) — A daughter and a granddaughter arrived the same day in City Hospital for Mrs. Victor Hartzell Sr. Mrs. Hartzell gave birth to her 15th child, Suzanne Lynne. Her daugher-in-law, Mrs. Victor Hartzell Jr., bore her first child, Mary Catherine.

Will Stay With France

ST. PIERRE, St. Pierre et Miquelon (AP) — These tiny windswept islands off the south coast of Newfoundland have decided to remain a territory of France.

France's overseas territories are given the option under the new constitution of retaining their status, becoming self-governing within a new French community or fully integrating with France.

Unions Included in Wide Probe

IRS Checking Records Of Tax-Exempt Groups

By VICTOR RIESEL

Treasury men are deep in what may become the widest national probe since the 16th Amendment made the U.S. government the junior partner of us all. Agents of the Internal Revenue Service quietly and methodically are checking some 600,000 men and women — all officials and employes of unions across the land

VICTOR RIESEL

This is no dragnet. This is no probe of labor. This is no effort to hook the hundreds of thousands of honest citizenry who draw their pay and expense accounts from labor organizations It is one facet of a survey of all tax-exempt organizations.

—:—

BUT THIS STEADY check in the income tax bureau's 63 district could eventually flush out every single four-flusher making a fast buck out of those unions invaded by the mobs.

Regardless of the union and its reputation, Treasury agents are questioning every expense item going back to January 1955.

Some of the unions which have already been sifted have had their '53 and '54 books checked.

This means that most union records will have been gone through for the period preceding the McClellan committee's smashing exposures — a period during which the hoods had no idea they needed to cover up their records. They all ran for cover towards the end of '56 and the beginning of '57.

YET THERE'S a long job ahead for the T-men. There are at least 485,000 union officials in some 70,000 locals belonging to almost 200 national and international unions But they all will be checked So will their employes — including the international organizers and executive office help.

All this came out of the Treasury Dept 's realization that all tax exempt groups had grown like Topsy but a little turvy, too.

There are actually 150,000 tax exempt organizations in the U.S. today.

And the Treasury has been receiving an average of 1,000 applications a month for tax exempt status from new outfits springing up all the time.

This seemed, at the very least, to call for some re-examination of the whole field of tax free units. There was no policy decision by former Secretary of the Treasury George Humphrey or Secretary Robert Anderson.

There was no intention to single out any group — and certainly not the unions. Labor is just one of 16 narrow classifications, which, in turn, fall into six broader ones, that had to be looked into.

THIS MOVE developed long before the McClellan probe or other congressional investigations.

Actually it never was a drive launched at a given signal Probes in the various regions were not coordinated at the beginning. But gradually many of the Internal Revenue Service's 10,000 to 11,000 income tax auditors began looking into outfits ranging over the fields of business, labor, fraternal, civic, religious and charitable organizations.

Chambers of Commerce, which have probed both the labor and industry witnesses involved.

Those fast bucks will have to pick up real speed from now on.

Goat Finds Accomplice To Help in His Escapes

FULTON, Ky. (AP) — Farmer Otis Lecornu couldn't understand how his goat always got out of its pasture.

One day Lecornu hid behind a tree. The goat climbed onto a stump in the field and started baa-ing. A burro sauntered over to the stump and the goat leaped onto his back.

Then the burro trotted to the fence and the goat bounded over the barrier.

Escort Service Is Given For Expectant Mother

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Mrs Richard Barchick, 26, had lots of company on her way to St. Vincent's hospital where she gave birth to a son. When the arrival seemed imminent, she phoned her husband at work and called in four friends Her husband phoned the fire department which dispatched a five-man rescue squad The firemen, in turn, called in a two-man police ambulance detail The total of 12 persons, in various vehicles, accompanied Mrs. Barchick to the hospital.

Mark Twain once described the 21-mile long Bermuda island chain (365 islands) as "the biggest little country in the world."

East Germans Set To Jam Radar Control

Reds Threaten Air Traffic to Berlin

BERLIN (NANA) — Communist East Germany is installing radar jamming equipment in the three Allied air corridors linking West Berlin and West Germany.

This ominous activity is reported by U.S. Air Force intelligence and confirmed in part by the East German government.

AF Intelligence states that jamming installations are being located along the 19-mile-wide corridors to completely "black out" radar-guided air traffic.

An East German government spokesman commented: "It can be assumed that since the so-called air corridors lie within the air space of the German Democratic Republic, measures are being taken to regulate and control the use of this air space."

USAF officials said a network of radar jammers such as the East Germans appear to be installing would enable the East Germans to ground nearly all traffic in the corridors.

AIRCRAFT RELY heavily on radar for normal navigation in the corridors. Moreover, nearly all landings at Tempelhof, the big West Berlin airfield, are by radar ground control approach during the winter months.

"I should say our dependence on radar in the corridors is so great the Communists could ground us by merely the threat of jamming our radar," a U.S. Air Force officer remarked.

Installation of the jamming equipment is linked with recent demands by the East German government that Western commercial airlines discontinue their West Brlin flights.

East Germany accuses the three airlines — Pan - American, Air France and British European Airways — of "aerial buccaneering."

The three airlines claim their right to fly the corridors derives from Western occupation rights in Germany.

It is believed East Germany will demand the right to fly its own airline to West Germany, France, Britain and New York in exchange for the West Berlin transit rights now enjoyed by the three Western airlines.

THE CONSENSUS is that East Germany could ground the western commercial airlines merely by threatening to jam their radar in the corridors.

Such jamming had advantages for the Communists over the alternatives of withdrawing the Soviet controller from the four-power air center in Berlin, or forcing down Western airliners.

West Germany's government takes the Communist threats against corridor civil air traffic so seriously that Chancellor Konrad Adenauer refuses to fly to Berlin via commercial.

The chancellor's last trip to Berlin was made on a U.S. Air force transport, Adenauer having requested the plane on the grounds he is afraid to fly commercially, even by chartered commercial airliner.

Early Enrollment Plan Adopted for 6-Year-Old

ADA, Okla. (AP) — Jimmy Kessler, 6-year-old Ada first grader, is all set to enter East Central State College here — in 1970.

Jimmy's father, C. D. Kessler, a building contractor, obtained estimates from college officials on the cost of four years in college, deposited the money with the finance office and pre-enrolled the youngster.

Big Hit With Muscovites

Cinerama Soviet-Style Draws Packed Houses

MOSCOW (NANA) — It may never win an Oscar, but the Russian version of Cinerama is drawing packed houses nightly in Moscow.

Here it's called Kino-Panorama, but it uses the same three-projector curved-screen technique as its American counterpart. By car, boat, train and plane it whisks the viewer off on a "Teknicolor" tour of the USSR that few Russians and certainly no foreigners have ever taken.

The entire theme of Soviet Cinerama is patriotic. When one of the opening shots shows a view of the Kremlin from a boat on the Moscow River, the stereophonic soundtrack narrator announces: "Moscow wasn't built in a day."

Much of the film is devoted to picturing Soviet accomplishments in the fields of construction and industry. When the camera focuses on the huge new Kuibyshev hydroelectric station, the narrator quotes the favorite formula of Lenin: "Communism equals collectivization plus electrification."

—:—

CURRENT government policies also get attention. There are many shots of young komsomols at work on the virgin lands of Kazakhstan and the Altai. And of pigs fattened as a result of Premier Khrushchev's corn-growing policy.

Best of all are the pictures taken on a logging boat on the swift-flowing Tissa River in the Transcarpathian mountains.

There are shots, too, of Russians at play—notably scantily clad bathing beauties relaxing on Black Sea beaches.

In one scene the cinerama driver's car stops to pick up a pretty hitchhiker, even though hitchhiking is illegal in Russia.

WHEN THE camera catches an American photographer at work during the Moscow youth festival the narrator asks: "Who is that?" Answer: "A correspondent of one of the bourgeois newspapers. How nice he has an opportunity to take pictures!"

Most spectacular are scenes familiar to Americans from their own cinerama: airplanes flying through narrow mountain gorges, motorboats racing one another through the water.

Soviet cinerama uses another trick employed by the American version: the opening shot with a small picture at the beginning, expanding into the full, wide-screen image.

Kino-Panorama is housed in a new, specially built modernistic theater on Tsvetnoi boulevard. Admission is seven rubles ($1.75 at the official exchange rate) for each of the two nightly performances. In the lobby downstairs, candy can be bought as in movie theaters elsewhere in the world and usherettes sell ice cream in the aisles.

It's enough to make an American feel homesick—almost.

Take Legal Action

MADRID (AP) — The government says legal action has been started against a number of Spaniards involved in illegal money deals. It is expected to become the largest financial scandal since Generalissimo Franco came to power.

Reliable reports said 100 million dollars or more was involved. Some of the biggest names in Spanish banking, business and industry are reported to be engaged in buying dollars as a hedge against Spain's runaway inflation.

The government communique, issued after a cabinet meeting Friday, said some arrests have been made and others will follow.

British Columbia fishermen account for nearly half of Canada's entire commercial catch. Salmon, the leading money earner, brings the province about $45,000,000 a year.

2nd Grade Pupil Learns His Lesson

LEXINGTON, N.C. (AP) — Second graders from Dunbar Elementary School visited the Lexington Fire Department in the morning hours.

A fireman directed the tour. He showed them the trucks and the apparatus, explaining how it all worked. And he showed them how to turn in a fire alarm.

And, of course, a fire alarm came in at 3:25 p.m., after school was out. Twenty firemen and 11 volunteers rushed to the alarm box. There was no smoke, no fire anywhere.

The usual false alarm investigation was made and the unhappy culprit was found. He, of course, was one of the 7-year-olds who had watched so interestedly the demonstration that morning.

World's largest all-steel dome, also the world's largest circular building, is in Baton Rouge, La.

One-Track Mind Gets Thief Prison Sentence

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Norman E. Dunbar, 57, was arrested as he tried to burglarize the Phoenix home of Mrs. Irma Linsenmeyer.

Dunbar had been released two days before from the State Prison — where he had served 29 months for burglarizing Mrs. Linsenmeyer's home.

Four-Year-Old Is Avid Reader of Newspapers

LANEXA, Va. (AP)—"Fair and cooler with increasing westerly winds."

Sounds like a routine weather forecast but it causes visitors to look and listen with astonishment when the reader of the paper is 4-year-old Everette Mann. He has been reading for two years and few words in a newspaper trip him. His parents plan to have an I. Q. test at an early date for the boy.

Milwaukee Actor Wins Role on Basis of Height

NEW YORK (AP) — Donald Hotton of Milwaukee won an offbeat role for his Broadway debut after a strange theatrical talent hunt.

He is playing the role of a college basketball player in the new Howard Lindsay - Russel Crouse comedy, "Tall Story." Needed was an actor of unusually lanky appearance. Hotton stands 6-foot-2 but, according to his appraisers, appears even taller.

The producers examined 300 aspirants and gave Hotton six auditions before he got the part. His previous experience has all been in his home city and with hinterland acting groups.

By JOHN CROSBY

A Madison Ave. File

Out of the mouths of babes, drunks, and an occasional advertising man caught unawares, come words of truth. One of my spies over on Madison Ave. has compiled a small file of short, explosive utterances he has overheard. They reveal much of the Madison Ave. mentality which is neither as low nor as high as some people say but is marvelously human and infinitely devious.

JOHN CROSBY

"Am I supposed to write too? I'm a publicity man."

"Is so-and-so dead? I hope so. It makes a better story."

"What's our angle on Christmas?

"It's a story of mother love. Are we for it or against it?"

"I don't like to cut my throat, either—but it's a living."

"Don't tell him the truth. Level with him."

"Integrity: Properly packaged expediency."

"When the bomb goes off, who'll be stuck with the residuals?"

"I don't want to live like a millionaire, I just want to be one."

"Now be sure to give me full credit—but don't quote me."

ANY ONE of those statements has that nice sense of indirection to it that is the soul, the essence of Madison Ave. thinking or Other Directedness.

I don't know what your angle on Christmas is but Sam Levenson's angle is books. He has just compiled his Christmas list of books which reads as follows:

For Ed Sullivan-Steve Allen — "The Enemy Camp."

Jack Paar — "Gaslight."

Groucho Marx — "King Leer."

Dinah Shore — "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm."

Milton Berle — "Compulsion."

John Daly — "How They Brought the Good News From Aix to Ghent."

Mike Wallace — "Microbe Hunters."

Perry Como — "Sleeping Beauty."

Dick Clark — "The Pied Piper."

George Fenneman — "The Sorcerer's Apprentice."

The Arthur Murrays — "Punch and Judy"

Dave Garroway — "The Sun Also Rises."

Edward R. Murrow — "A House Is Not a Home."

Levenson is one of TV's deeper thinkers who is incessantly worrying about the darndest things.

Among the things that bother Levenson:

"How come Jackie Cooper's dog can talk and Lassie still barks?"

"Can Bennett Cerf see beyond his blindfold?"

"Why didn't Teddy Nadler wait till the questions were asked before answering them?"

I had a talk with Danny Thomas the other day about the problem of longevity or TV geriatrics, a tough subject:

"Any series is like a marriage," said Thomas. "At some point the honeymoon is over. When deadly sameness sets in, it is just that—deadly.

"I know there's always room for more change, but I remember once when I went back to Chicago and did a whole new routine instead of my old standbys, all the critics rapped me and started wailing: 'What's happened to our Danny?' That's the reaction to change sometimes.

"WE'RE EVALUATING the rewards and difficulties of taking our show to Europe — taking the innocents abroad," he said. "We could do a lot of different things.

"I could play a date at the Palladium in London — and there I'd be looking up at the marquee and telling the family about all the great ones who played there. We'd go inside and look around. We could use the interiors and exteriors very liberally all over Europe."

His producer, Sheldon Leonard, chimed in:

'We're going to have to blow a lot of money — if we convince everyone this is the right move. We'd have to get someone on the Coast to write it, then get it adapted by a European writer for the European settings and then rewritten in Hollywood. That alone is tremendously expensive."

Mr. Thomas stared out the window thoughtfully:

"I honestly believe that the meek shall inherit the earth. Now I didn't say the poor meek, necessarily. Maybe the rich meek will inherit it. But anyway, the meek."

I have no idea how that fitted into the context of what we were talking about, but it's a splendid quote.

Spill-Proof Toys Make Children's Travel Easy

NEW YORK (AP) — Car travel play problems for the younger set are neatly solved with a game which ends the problem of losing pieces ingeniously by attaching the playing pieces firmly to the board by cords. The spill - proof car travel game board represents a highway marked by varied obstacles which habitually delay motorists. The object of play is to be the first to drive from one end of the route to the other.

Songstress Sophie Tucker literally was born on the road. Her mother was fleeing from Russia in a wagon across Poland when the blessed event happened.

On-the-Spot Probe Made in Accident

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (AP)—Second Lt. Thomas Stewart made an emergency landing at Flagstaff Airport. His jet knocked down five landing lights, ran off the runway, crashed through a fence and smashed into a row of trees. But Stewart walked away unscratched.

An Air Force investigation team flew to the airport to determine the cause of the crash. After investigation, the five team members and Stewart were heading home when their light plane suddenly veered off the runway, spun around and stopped in soft dirt. None was injured.

All but one member of the team left on a third plane. The fifth man stayed behind to determine the cause of the second accident.

Vendors' Cries Bother Man Named 'Peanuts'

CONWAY, S. C. (AP) — There's a fellow who lives here who says the boys selling boiled peanuts are driving him nuts.

Everywhere he goes, he reports, he hears the lads yelling "peanuts."

"It wouldn't be so bad," he says, "but my nickname is Peanuts."

Income From Hay Crop Helps Pay for Airport

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP) — The Patrick Henry airport here is making hay and reaping dividends therefrom. Officials estimate that 150 tons of hay will be reaped this year. It helps finance the airport.

Engine on Wrong End Of Train, Auto Is Hit

HONOLULU (AP) — An island woman motorist approaching a railroad crossing saw a train on the tracks but decided to proceed because the locomotive was at the far end of the train.

She thought the train was leaving the crossing, Mrs. Solina Agudong explained to a police officer. But it wasn't.

The locomotive was pushing the cars—which, in turn, pushed in the side of her automobile.

Poinsettia Nature's Most Brilliant Yule Offering

Colorful Plants Brought North to America From Mexico

By JUNE ROSEBERRY

Colorful poinsettias, evergreen trees and sprigs of holly are as much a part of Christmas today as the traditional gift exchange.

One or more of them are found in nearly every home.

The demand for these holiday favorites keeps tree and holly vendors busy filling orders.

Several hundred poinsettias are expected to adorn Marion homes by Christmas Eve and thousands of trees will have made their way from forest to living room, standing in glistening splendor.

A NATIVE plant of Central America, the poinsettia has been a favorite at Christmas for many years. It was brought to this country from Mexico by Joel R. Poinsett, for whom it was named.

With their pointed red, pink or white petals the velvety plants resemble the star of Bethlehem. The bright colors of the plant are leaves, rather than blooms.

The Christmas flower is the subject of a legend about a poor Mexican child who was heartbroken because she had no Christmas Eve gift for the infant Jesus.

A handful of scrawny weeds were her meager offering as she walked to the church. But when she presented her token of love at the altar, the weeds suddenly transformed into the radiant beauty of a poinsettia.

The plant's Mexican name, "Flor de Noche Buena" means "Flower of the Holy Night."

Local florists report that the scarlet variety leads the list in popularity. White ones last longer, however, and are gaining in favor.

THE SENSITIVITY of the plant makes it difficult to raise. Fairview Gardens raises more poinsettias than any other local concern. Andrew C. Arndt, owner, reports that 4,000 plants were raised this year. These are clumped four or five to a pot.

Once this symbol of Christmas has made its colorful debut in the home, it must be treated royally to protect its delicate life.

Local florists offer these timely suggestions for care. Place the potted plant in a sunny window away from drafts and excessive heat. The optimum temperature is 70 degrees. Examine the soil daily and keep it uniformly moist.

The Christmas tree, whether fragrant spruce or long-needled pine, can bespeak the color of the holiday as no other decoration in the home. A world of shimmering tinsel, glistening balls and brilliant lights greets the trimmer when he steps back to admire the handiwork of his efforts.

Although the origin of the Christmas tree has not been definitely established, the most popular belief is that it originated in Germany where it symbolized the tree of paradise.

Still another belief holds that the first Christmas tree was a palm tree brought from Egypt with its 12 sections symbolizing the 12 Apostles.

The stately Yuletide symbol first appeared in this country in the early 1700's with German immigrants. Their use of the tree soon became emblematic of the holy season.

THE TRADITIONAL red and green of Christmas are best revealed in a shiny green spray of holly leaves with red bead-like berries clustered at the center.

Long before Christmas was observed, holly was used as a good luck symbol. Pagan Germans used it in celebrations marking the return of the sun from its southward pilgrimage. Druids placed the green sprigs in their dwellings as a shelter for sylvan spirits threatened by frost and winter winds.

Greeks distributed holly as a sign that the recipient would have the foresight to overcome his troubles. Some Britons still consider it unlucky to introduce the foliage into a house before Christmas Eve.

But whatever the custom or tradition surrounding this and other harbingers of the holiday, they find wide and varied use in the home and have become synonomous with the Yuletide season.

WONDERLAND OF SCARLET. Poinsettia plants, such as these surrounding John Keggan, owner of the Marion Flower Shop, have become as traditional as holly and evergreen trees. The scarlet variety is the most popular, but white poinsettias are gaining in favor. The plants also come with pink leaves.

"I will be responsible for all the obligations of my wife, Vivian Davis. During 20 years of marriage she has given me great happiness, comfort, counsel and two fine children. As we begin our 21st year, I am proud to assume any and all her wishes."

NEW YORK (AP) — Meredith Willson, author-composer-lyricist of "The Music Man" is writing a book about the smash musical now.

Willson said he plans to trace the odyssey, "both emotional and physical" which led to production of "The Music Man." The show is his first on Broadway, but the book will be Willson's fourth.

New Jersey Man, Thief Fond of Same Animals

ORANGE, N.J. (AP) — James Cook is fond of animals. So is somebody else.

Cook recently bought a pig to keep in his backyard. Someone stole it. Then he bought a dozen ducks. Some one stole them. Then a possum which promptly had a litter of 10. The whole family was swiped.

Finally, he bought 10 chicks which grew up into nine hens and a rooster. If you think some one stole all of them, you're wrong. They left him the rooster.

Expense Account Woes Will Be Shown in Play

NEW YORK (AP) — That woeful denizen of the business world—the man with an expense account—is being measured as the newest protagonist of stage drama.

Producers Harvey Collins and Mike Jackson are planning "Expense Account," a musical based upon a novel by Joe Morgan. The plot concerns the executive caught in the pincers of free-spending while on the job and a tight budget while at home.

Championship Swine Living Up to Its Name

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Young Robert Bockhop made no mistake when he named his choice Berkshire hog "I'm It."

"I'm It" was chosen the grand champion barrow at the Southern Wisconsin Junior Live Stock Exposition. And Robert received a $711 check for the auction sale of his 237-pound hog. That's $3 a pound.

Navy, Air Force at Odds

Atomic Plane Program Stalled by Service Fight

WASHINGTON (NANA) — The Navy and Air Force, instructed early last month to work out a "marriage" of their atomic aircraft program, so far have made no move to do so.

Deputy Defense Secretary Donald Quarles ordered the services to team up in the development of the first U.S. atomic-powered plane. Each has an airframe study under way and General Electric is developing an atomic power plant for airplanes.

Navy officials meantime said they believed the Air Force "leaked" to Aviation Week, an aeronautics trade magazine, the story that Soviet Russia already has test-flown an atomic plane.

THEY POINTED out that the story was published at a time when the Air Force is seeking stepped-up fiscal 1960 funds for the atomic aircraft program.

In the present fiscal year the Air Force was handed $150,000,000 for its land-based aircraft development project for which the Convair division of the General Dynamics Corp., Fort Worth, Tex., and the Lockheed plant at Marietta, Ga., have airframe study contracts.

The Navy, on the other hand, is down for only about $7,500,000 this fiscal year for an atomic seaplane program. Convair at San Diego and the Martin Co. of Baltimore have airframe study contracts for an atomic flying boat.

Navy officials conceded the Air Force is holding all the cards in the wake of Quarles' order to merge the atomic aircraft projects.

"The Navy is in the position of saying to the Air Force: 'Let us help spend your money,'" one Navy official observed.

Because of this situation, he added, the Navy has made no overtures to the Air Force about getting together on the A-plane program.

"And the Air Force hasn't come to us," the official said.

IT APPEARED that further action by Quarles might be necessary to get Air Force-Navy conferences under way. Meantime neither service is certain of whether it will get funds for an accelereated atomic aircraft program in the next fiscal year, since their allotments, under Quarles' directive, would be lumped to finance a single project.

The Navy-Air Force impasse finds Convair on both sides of the fence in the light of its A-plane contracts with both services.

Industry sources here said that even if the President approves sufficient funds to move the A-plane development ahead, so many airframe and power plant problems remain to be solved that it would be several years before a reliable plane could be sent aloft.

Beckwith arrested a speeder on the Connecticut Turnpike. The motorist complimented the officer for his fine handling of the case, saying, "his behavior was beyond reproach in the performance of his duty."

Piles Are Never "Mild"
DANGER IN NEGLECT

No one should ever think of piles (hemorrhoids) as a "mild" disorder.

Although they may seem a "mild" ailment, especially when not giving pain or inconvenience, piles are in fact tumor formations without tendency to heal themselves; instead, they are likely, if neglected to keep increasing in size, involving more of the rectal area.

Even a so-called "mild" case may be expected to undermine one's health, by aggravating other ailments, such as indigestion, biliousness, stomach trouble, constipation, headaches, pain in back and down the legs, secondary anemia with its run-down tired feeling, and general nervous irritability.

Removal of piles is the only permanent relief. Our method produces little or no discomfort, does not require the use of knife or drugs, and seldom any loss of time from work.

We do not treat cancer.

Why not call and learn of this method? The examination is free.

1-B—IN MEMORIAMS

IN MEMORY of Earl L. Temple who passed away six years ago today.
They say time heals all sorrow,
And helps one to forget,
But time so far has only proved
How much we miss you yet.
Sadly missed by his wife, Nellie and Family.

IN LOVING MEMORY of our Dear Mother, Nonabell Kraner who departed Dec. 22, '57.
Near a shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Shedding its sweetness day and night
It grew and blossomed fair and tall,
It came to a crevice in the wall.
Onward it crept with added strength.
It followed the light through the crevice length.
The roses still grow beyond the wall
Scattering fragrance far and wide,
Makes our courage faint or fail,
Just as it will forevermore.
Sadly missed by the Family,
Mr. Earl Kraner and Children.

Santa and the ELF BOY

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

The Hag tells Esteban that if he will take her back to earth from the moon, she will give him a powder that will awaken the professor's spell-bound wife. But as they prepare to leave, the Man in the Moon stops them.

Chapter 16

A STRANGE PROPOSAL

"I am sorry," said the Man in the moon as he blocked Esteban's path. "I cannot let you go."

Esteban fell back in alarm. "What?" he cried. "Why would you hold us here?"

The old man smiled gently. "I will not keep you long," he said sadly. "Only long enough for me to feast my eyes once more on this beautiful vision." He peered with adoring eyes at the Hangdog Hag.

"Me?" cackled the Hag in astonishment. "You mean I am beautiful?"

"To me, you are lovely," said the old man. "If only you would be my bride. This old moon would never be lonely again."

"Me? A bride?" she gasped

Esteban plucked at the Hag's arm. "Come let us hurry!"

BUT THE HAG shook him off and stood gazing at the old man. "No creature—man or beast—has called me beautiful before," she whispered. "I will stay and be his bride."

Then the Hag and the Man in the Moon fell joyfully into one another's arms. So happy were they with each other they scarcely looked up when Eteban waved farewell and sped away in his sleigh.

On the long trip back to earth Esteban never stopped urging on the deer. "Faster! Faster! Faster!" And the deer obeyed so well that in no time at all they were back in Santa Land.

The anxious fairy folk swarmed around him.

"It's done!" cried Esteban holding up the little box.

"I have the powder to break the spell!"

Then they all cheered mightily and Santa said, "It is Christmas Eve. My bag is packed Come, Esteban, we will leave at once."

And once again the sleigh, heavy with gifts, took off into the sky. The exhausted reindeer held their heads high and shook their antlers gaily.

AT LAST they swept down over a sleeping town. As they passed the town hall they could see the clock in the steeple. A quarter to midnight. In 15 minutes it would be Christmas Day.

Gently the sleigh landed on the roof of the great white castle. As it did so a strange thing happened. A hawk who had been sleeping in his nest on the roof awoke and took off in flight. Then a little blue bird shook herself free of the nest and hopped to the sleigh.

"It's my blue bird!" cried Esteban, picking up the bird. "We've saved her anyway!" He gave the bird to Santa and then he climbed into the nearest chimney.

A SECOND later he popped out in Charlotte's room. The little girl looked up in astonishment when he appeared.

"Esteban!" she cried, "Where have you been?"

Esteban put his hand over her mouth. "I'll tell you all later. Are you locked in?"

"Oh, no! My father said if I tried to get anyone to stop him the same thing would happen to that one as happened to you. So I promised I wouldn't bother him again. But, oh, Esteban, he is in his room now waiting for midnight to release the gas!"

"Go to him at once," cried Esteban rushing out the door. "Implore him to come to the room where the sleeping woman lies just once before he releases the gas!"

Charlotte flew through the corridors to do his bidding while he himself raced up the stairs to the room where the beautiful woman lay.

He opened the little box and, taking out a pinch of white powder, flung the powder on the closed eyelids.

There was a gentle movement on the bed and the sleeping woman opened her eyes.

For a long moment she and Esteban gazed at one another and then she sat up and said, "Where is my husband? Where is my own darling child?"

3 Persons Hospitalized In Connecticut by Bees

NEW BRITAIN, Conn (AP) — This town has had its "bee" day.

The bees sent three persons to the hospital and caused the wrecking of two cars in separate incidents.

Police reported one man lost control of his car when he spotted the bee as his passenger. The car plowed into another and across 134 feet of lawn.

Another man was stung by a bee and became ill. He was taken to the hospital by police emergency car.

A police sergeant was directing traffic when stung on the knee.
